Ninetieth General Assembly--1999

First Regular Session

FIRST DAY, Wednesday, January 6, 1999

The House was called to order at twelve o'clock noon by the Honorable Rebecca Cook, Secretary of State.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"As we have opportunity, let us do good to all." (Gal. 6:10)

We gather this afternoon to open the 90th General Assembly as Congress opens its 109th also today. We do so with some snapshots of political life in the nation--the impending impeachment trial of the President, Jesse Ventura inaugurated as Governor of Minnesota, Senator John Ashcroft decides not to run for President, a new Speaker for Congress. We pause to acknowledge those who chose not to run, those who lost their seats and we welcome new members today. Our prayers go out to those who are suffering in any way, and our sympathy and prayers also go to the families of those who died this past year.

We thank you Eternal God for the orderly transfer of power as we begin this work. May we never take it for granted. We know we come here today dressed in nice suits and outfits, family gathered for the swearing in, surrounded by the beauty and majesty of this building and humbled by the heritage which we are committed to preserve and develop. We also know that we come capable of the noblest of human activity and its basest conduct. Guide us with your grace, we accept your forgiveness and pledge today to live up to the challenge of our oath of office. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

SECRETARY OF STATE ADDRESSES THE HOUSE

I would like to welcome all of you here today as we open the House of Representatives and begin the 90th General Assembly.

In particular, I would like to welcome the new members who are being sworn in for the first time.

And I would like to welcome the families and friends of all the members who are gathered here today for this great occasion.

This is a great occasion because it symbolizes the greatness of our democracy. Just two months ago, Missourians went to the polls to make their voices heard. They elected men and women to serve in offices ranging from County Collector and Presiding Commissioner, to State Auditor and United States Senator.

And, they elected one hundred sixty-three men and women to serve as members of this distinguished body.

With the oaths you are about to take from Judge Benton, the will of the voters is being carried out.

Our democracy is at work.

But our democratic process does not end today. It continues each and every day as each of you represent the needs and interests of 32,000 Missourians.

As Franklin Roosevelt put it: "Democracy is not a static thing. It is an everlasting march."

Our march for democracy continues as members of this body - of all ages, from all professions, religious denominations, economic backgrounds, with varied life experiences, from all parts of this state - representing equally diverse constituencies, come together to find common ground on the many issues facing this state on the eve of the twenty-first century.

Throughout our nation's history, throughout our state's history, we have found strength in our diversity.

While that diversity can lead to disagreements and conflict, the knowledge that we have all been elected to represent the people, eventually overshadows those differences. We find common ground and our democracy works.

President Dwight Eisenhower suggested that if you had to define democracy in one word it would have to be "cooperation."

I think you will find that to be the case as you interact with your colleagues, with the Senate, and other branches of government.

I certainly look forward to working with you in the coming months and in the years ahead.

With the twenty members being sworn in for the first time today, there will have been six thousand four hundred and fifty-nine men and women who have served in this body since Missouri became a state in 1821.

That places you in a very select group of people.

The Missouri House of Representatives is a great institution. It has a wonderful tradition. When you represent your district well, you not only honor that tradition, but you also honor our democracy.

Congratulations and good luck. May God be with each of you as you work together to improve the lives of Missouri citizens.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

To the Honorable House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, First Regular Session, of the State of Missouri:

In compliance with Section 115.525, Revised Statutes of Missouri, 1994, I have the honor to lay before you herewith a list of the names of the members of the House of Representatives for the Ninetieth General Assembly (First Regular Session) of the State of Missouri, elected at the General Election held on the 3rd day of November, 1998.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and affix the official seal of my office this 4th day of January, 1999.

/s/ Rebecca McDowell Cook

SPEAKER ADDRESSES THE HOUSE

Good afternoon, and thank you for the trust you have shown in me by allowing me to serve as your Speaker. It is an honor to welcome you--the General Assembly, chosen by the citizens of this state to lead us into the 21st Century.

Congratulations for earning the trust and respect of your constituents who selected you to represent them here in this grand chamber of our State Capitol.

I want to recognize all the family and friends with us here today. Without their support, we would not be here. I especially want to recognize and thank my wife, Fannie, for her wonderful support.

It is our privilege to serve in the Missouri House as we bring a close to this century and look toward the next.

We are the General Assembly that will be leading our great state into the new millennium...amid much anticipation. A new century of new challenges and new opportunities is before us.

The anticipation of all that lies ahead in the next 100 years is built largely upon all that we have seen in the past 100 years--a period of time that has taken us from horses to jet engines...postal mail to e-mail...and nearly eliminated one of history's devastating diseases with a drop of medicine in a sugar cube.

As much as we might try, our minds cannot truly comprehend, nor our imaginations completely capture, all that could come about in the next century--a cure for cancer...vehicles that emit water rather than carbon monoxide...the ability to travel to other planets...or maybe even through time.

Stephen Hawking truly believes time travel is possible. This famous physicist--a researcher, author and professor at Cambridge University--predicts that scientists will someday in the foreseeable future be able to identify particles that travel faster than the speed of light and perhaps, even travel through time.

Could such discoveries someday allow mankind to travel backward or forward in time?

Nearly 35 years ago, I walked through the doors of a one-room school house, known as Sugar Creek, where I began first grade and would continue my education until junior high.

Most years, there were two of us in my grade, though once, because of a population explosion, we got up to four students.

In that small country school, one teacher taught between 30 and 35 students in eight grades. Needless to say, she had only a limited amount of time with each grade...and with each student. After her time with my small class, I would often wander over to a little library in the corner of the room.

There...on those shelves...I would find words that frequently filled the rest of each school day...stories that took me to different worlds...ideas that influenced the rest of my life.

I discovered books that took me to other places and times...stories about dinosaurs from long ago...stories about people like Martin Luther King Senior and Junior, and how education put a sharecropper's son on a path that would someday change the world...and science fiction stories about space exploration and time travel.

Stephen Hawking believes we may be able to discover time travel in the century ahead, but I began traveling through time midway through this century...nearly 35 years ago...when I learned to read.

For thousands of years, we have been able to visit other worlds and other times through our minds and the words of others. With books and the written word, the universe is limitless.

I believe our visions for the future...for ourselves...for our families...for our state and nation...are born from the things we read when we are young.

With the ability to read, we gain access to the ideas of others...to places that others have seen...and people they have known. How much we learn in school is dependent upon something we too often take for granted--the ability to read.

Research in education shows that third grade is the critical time for a child to have learned how to read, and that ability is the foundation upon which learning takes place.

How can a child who is not proficient at reading learn of the great nations that have come before us...know the foresight of our founding fathers...understand the successes and mistakes of our past?

How can a child, who is not reading well by the third grade, explore the basics of science--biology, chemistry and physics?

How can a child ever hope to contribute to the new frontier of the 21st Century if they cannot absorb the tremendous information we have learned in this century...available to us now in the written word through books and our newest information source--the Internet?

Some might be led to believe the advent of new technology makes it appropriate for us to shift our focus away from the basics of reading, writing, math, social studies and science.

I believe that it's more important now than ever before, for our children to build strong foundations so they may be prepared and able to learn about the new and the old...so the computers in which we invest for our classrooms will not lie idle or be used as recess playgrounds.

Children who cannot read are not able to fully and successfully function in the small society of their school classrooms, and they certainly will not be able to successfully participate in the much larger society that awaits.

One statistic illustrates that point like no other. Seventy percent of inmates in our country's prisons are functionally illiterate--unable to write a basic personal business letter or read a bus schedule.

Let us find a way to ensure that every third grader who can, has the ability to read at grade level before the fourth grade begins.

The child that has not learned to read by that time will not be prepared to take on the century's new challenges and opportunities.

That child--although able to push the buttons on a computer--will not be able to fully benefit from the wealth of knowledge offered by the Internet...That child--even when given the best books money can buy--will not be able to learn about the wonders of the world...fulfill their potential for the future...or contribute to the discoveries of the new millennium.

Our work in this chamber last year focused on the needs of our state's children and their families. The foundation of Missouri...the very foundation of America...is built upon the working family.

1998 was one of the most successful legislative sessions in recent history. We provided tax relief that will especially benefit working families and senior citizens.

An increase in the state income tax deduction for dependents and property tax relief for seniors will put more money in the pockets of those who need it the most.

The Children's Health Initiative will help provide medical care to the thousands of children who have been uninsured because their working parents did not have access to affordable health insurance.

We have made Missouri safer for our families with the toughest laws in the nation to battle our state's substantial methamphetamine problem and keep sexual predators off the streets.

The Early Childhood Education Program will help Missouri's preschool aged children get a head start in life and enter school ready to learn.

And several new programs, including Advantage Missouri, will make college more affordable for working families.

As we prepare for the next millennium, we must remain focused on the importance of our foundation--and continue to address the needs of the working family.

Already living in a state with one of the lowest overall tax burdens in the entire nation, we have the opportunity to provide even more broad-based tax relief to our working families and senior citizens.

At the same time we need to keep watch on our state's budget and practice fiscal conservatism. We must make sure that our state has the resources to continue to soundly operate well into the new century...so our covenant with our children's future will not be broken.

We must continue to stand up for our seniors--those who laid the foundation for us.

Following last year's expansion of property tax relief for seniors, let us consider a tax credit for pharmaceuticals to help our state's elderly afford the medications they need to live longer and healthier lives.

We must make sure our state is safer, especially for our senior citizens and children, by initiating a system of background checks for people who care for the elderly, as well as those who provide care for our kids.

And we need to put a stop to those who approach our senior citizens through telephone calls and door-to-door pitches to engage in fraudulent means to deceive and rob them of the money they have saved for their retirement years.

We must also work to keep Missouri sound. We need to continue creating more good paying jobs across our state.

Missouri continues to enjoy successful economic times. We finished 1998 with a near record 3.9 percent unemployment rate and an inflation rate of 1.5 percent, both lower than the national average.

More Missourians than ever are working, with a net total of 34,000 new jobs created in the state last year. And 348 companies expanded existing facilities or built new one during the past year.

While most of us are sharing in these good economic times, there are some who are not. Let us not forget parts of our urban core areas that continue to experience economic difficulties.

And our family farmers are facing tough times, with some of the lowest prices for their products this century. This session we must take a serious look at what we can do to help preserve this important way of life in Missouri.

Continuing our work from last session, let us work to solve the problem of access to affordable health insurance for Missouri farmers as well as small business owners and their employees throughout the state.

Improving education...securing safe homes and neighborhoods...encouraging economic growth...fighting for additional tax relief...preserving our family farms...providing access to good health care--this is the work that will build a solid foundation for the 21st century.

With it, we can travel courageously into the future...to our new frontier...to our great destiny.

Let us be on our way.

SPEAKER PRO TEM ADDRESSES THE HOUSE

Mr. Speaker, members of the public, distinguished colleagues, friends and honored guests

I am truly grateful to all of you for your trust and support

And I want to give a very special thanks to my family who is here with me today for all their love and patience

I stand before you today, a humble man a common man

As my friend from Jackson has said, I am neither fancy in dress nor in speech

But if you will bear with me there is something I have to say today

As I stand here in this beautiful chamber of the Missouri House, I am puzzled and deeply concerned

Over the past seven years our state has been blessed with tremendous growth and prosperity

Our citizens have better jobs

Our children have better schools

Our families have better health care and Our communities have safer streets

All the while we have been able to lower taxes and refund millions of dollars in excess revenue...

Yes, we have accomplished so much in such a short period of time

Yet public support of the legislature remains at an all time low

Today, as we prepare for a new session, we have to ask ourselves why is this so

Perhaps part of the blame rests in Washington

But the truth is that those of us who sit in this chamber must take responsibility for part of the blame

In this era of intense partisanship, negative campaigning and winner-take-all politics we may have lost sight of our roles and our duties once we get here

I keep wondering where have all the statesmen gone

Have we lost respect for this great chamber? Its traditions and its rules?

When members, on both sides of the aisle, choose to wear casual clothes on the floor because the rules aren't quite clear enough

When we bring soft drinks to the floor in the can

When we walk in between members debating

And most importantly, when we lose our sense of civility to one another in debate

Mr. Speaker and members of the body I ask you I ask myself where is the respect where is the honor

I believe we are at a crossroads in this institution

In my opinion this House can no longer afford to be guided by only some of those principles you see engraved in our great chamber at the expense of other EQUALLY important principles

You see each principle IS a column upon which this House stands

If some are ignored the House is on very shaky ground.

I say today that there can be no enterprise, no liberty, no progress, no justice, no equality,

no education, no law, no knowledge and no truth

Without temperance, charity, fraternity and most of all HONOR

If we can remember THIS I believe public support will follow

Ladies and Gentlemen, today I accept the position of Speaker Pro Tem with great pride and humility

But more importantly, I accept it with these commitments

To my colleaguesI will strive each day to lead by exampleto follow the spirit of the rules and not just the letter and to respect this great chamber and my fellow STATESMEN

To the citizens of this statel will defend ALL the guiding principles upon which this government was foundednot just those that are politically convenient

I say let us replace the politics of opportunism with the politics of optimism

Let us embrace moderation, rather than extremism.

Mr. Speaker and fellow RepresentativesToday

Let us stand togetherGuided by each and every principle before us, with a single purpose

To serve the people of this state with RESPECT and HONORTHANK YOU.

ELECTION CONTESTS

IN THE MISSOURI HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

ELECTION CONTEST, COMPLAINT AGAINST LINDA BARTELSMEYER, AND REQUEST FOR HEARINGS ON MISSOURI ELECTION IRREGULARITIES

In the matter of Linda Bartelsmeyer and the 132nd District, Missouri House seat.

Bob Bartelsmeyer, Lawrence County Clerk; Gary Youngblood, Barry County Clerk; Board of State Canvassers, consisting of Rebecca Cook, Thos. Sodergren, and Pat Joyce, additional Respondents.

115.563 RSMo. 1998 provides that all contested elections for the office of state representative shall be heard and determined by the state house of representatives and that further any contest based on the qualifications of a candidate for the office of state representative not adjudicated prior to the general election shall be determined by the state house of representatives.

David Forgy, a registered voter of Lawrence County, Missouri, was a candidate in the 1998 primary for the Republican nomination for the 132nd District Missouri House of Representatives position.

Linda Bartelsmeyer was also the incumbent candidate for the nomination and was declared the winner by her husband, Bob Bartelsmeyer, amidst affidavits and requests by voters for further investigation regarding irregularities in the 1998 Lawrence County, Missouri primary election. Please see exhibit A, attached hereto, an affidavit by Marvalene Pankey regarding her observations in the primary election. Please also see exhibit B, attached hereto, petitions by several citizens asking for further investigation of the Lawrence County primary election.

THIS MATTER IS BEING BROUGHT BEFORE THE MISSOURI HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AT THIS TIME FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS.

1. David Forgy became aware November 14, 1998, of new evidence regarding the ETNet 2.40 software not having been certified for use in Missouri at the time of the primary.
2. It was not until after others reviewed the Lawrence County voter registration list that new evidence surfaced, that David Forgy only became aware of shortly before the filing of this matter, that there are pages of voters in some precincts, who do not have any apparent phone numbers listed in the phone director. It is unlikely there would be entire pages of voters all without listed phone numbers unless the list contains people not eligible to vote, deceased, in prison, actually living elsewhere, etc.
3. Five days after verification of election returns was too short a time to file an election contest and the law was not clear as to whether a court of law or the Missouri House had to consider any contest regarding the primary election.

4. The Missouri House adjourned sine die in May, 1998 and thus will not be in session to consider any election contest until the new session begins on or about January 6, 1999.

Linda Bartelsmeyer is not qualified to be seated in the Missouri House of Representatives because:

1. The 1998 Primary Election returns in Barry and Lawrence Counties were invalid in that Henry Adkins company of Clinton, Missouri, that provided all the election materials has not been valid to do business in Missouri since 1984, having been dissolved by the secretary of state's office for failure to pay franchise taxes. See Exhibit C attached, e mail message from the secretary of state confirming this issue. Missouri law requires any company that uses the term inc. to be recognized as a corporation in the State of Missouri, maintain a registered agent, file annual reports, and in many instances pay franchise taxes, chapter 351 RSMo. Henry M. Adkins company represents to the public that the operation is a corporation, when actually they were dissolved as a corporation 14 years ago.

2. Henry Adkins company provided software for the vote tabulation in Barry and Lawrence Counties (and believed in numerous other counties in Missouri) known as ETNet 2.40, source code from Election Resource Corporation. That software had not been certified for use in Missouri, as required by law, and was not certified by the secretary of state, until September 17, 1998. Please see exhibit D, copy of the numerous changes that had been made in the software and the September 17, 1998 certification.

Primary election night, 1998, Lawrence County clerk, Bob Bartelsmeyer claimed the tabulation equipment had a virus and later Bill Vanderberg, programmer for Henry Adkins, stated there had been a virus in the software. The night of the primary Gary Youngblood, Barry County clerk, travelled with the Barry County tabulation equipment into Lawrence County and claimed to count the votes, but also was supposedly using ETNet 2.40 software. Marvalene Pankey's affidavit regarding the primary points out that she witnessed a large discrepancy in a hand count and the tabulation equipment count for an associate circuit judge's race. (See exhibit A)

3. Linda Bartelsmeyer's husband certified the returns for the primary election without giving notice as to when the verification committee would meet. 115.501 RSMo. 1998 required that notice be given and it is contestant's understanding that no notice was given and it is contestant's understanding that no notice was given and this was done in secret.

4. Voters were not provided a separate ballot for the Republican Party for the primary, as required by law. Adkins company sold the county clerks booklets that contained all the parties. This caused confusion, which was enhanced by the ballot cards that were in theory different colors, actually having two of the minor parties of nearly identical colors. Missouri law requires separate ballots for the political parties in the primary, 115.395 RSMo. 1998.

5. Absentee ballots were not counted in the primary nor the general election in Lawrence county (and believed in Barry County) by hand, as required by Missouri law, 115.299 RSMo. 1998, from L. 1977 H.B. 101, 9.060 A.L. 1993 S.B. 31.

6. Others have pointed out additional irregularities and concerns that should be considered by the Missouri House in any review of this petition. See exhibit E, copy of Marvalene Pankey's election contest being filed with the Missouri Senate; Exhibit F, a statement from Ray Dennison, who observed the Lawrence County tabulation for the 1998 general election; and Exhibit G, statement from Joe Nix, chairperson of the Lawrence County U.S. Taxpayers Party and candidate for Mo. House, 1996, attached.

7. The Secretary of State convened the Board of State Canvassers pursuant to 115.511 RSMo. Supp. 1997 at 4 p.m. November 24, 1998. Section 2 of 115.511 RSMo. requires the Board of State Canvassers to 'total the abstracts' of the general election and make the official announcement of the results. As Marvalene Pankey's affidavit points out, see exhibit H, the Board of State Canvassers only met for about 12 minutes and signed preprinted official results, which were printed 23 hours earlier; see exhibit I, copy of the preprinted official results for the Linda Bartelsmeyer race and certification by the Board of State Canvassers. She also states her own review of 14 Missouri election authority abstracts discovered what appeared to be totally unreviewed returns and numerous errors or irregularities. Until the Board of State Canvassers completes its work Linda Bartelsmeyer is unqualified to be seated in the Missouri House.

8. Linda Bartelsmeyer also should not be seated in the Missouri House of Representatives because she violated Missouri law in having signs for the primary and general election, 1998, that said simply, ELECT BARTELSMEYER, and in tiny print, 'paid for by candidate' . The public could not tell if the signs were for Linda or Bob Bartelsmeyer nor which campaign committee needed to report who paid for the signs. This was deliberate deception upon the public and violated 130.031.8 RSMo. 1998.

This petition is timely in that new evidence was just discovered in the past few days and the general election returns were certified by the Board of State Canvassers on November 24, 1998.

Therefore, David Forgy and as joined by others, including those on the petitions signed after the primary and interested voters and candidates as attached by exhibits, asks the Missouri House to refuse to seat Linda Bartelsmeyer as a member of this body until he can present his proof before a hearing. And that further, in the least, the Missouri House open an investigation into Missouri election irregularities and alleged vote fraud and hold hearings regarding same. The issue is not how many votes anyone is shown as having. The issue is that there were irregularities and probable fraud and not one ballot may have been counted legitimately in Lawrence or Barry County or perhaps in much of Missouri. Irregularities and probable fraud that needs thoroughly reviewed; which anyone who recognizes the importance of the integrity of the election franchise will want to do something about.

State of Missouri, County of Lawrence

On 12-07-98 before me appeared David Forgy and affirmed the above as his pleading, true to his best knowledge and belief, made on his own free will in the interest of preserving the integrity of elections.

VERIFIED PETITION FOR CONTEST OF ELECTIONS

The Contestant for his contest of election against the Contestee states:

I. Parties and Summary

1. Robert L. May (the Contestant) was the Republican Party candidate for state representative in House District No. 149 in the November 3, 1998, general election.

2. Jerry E. McBride (the Contestee) was the Democratic Party candidate for state representative in the House District No. 149 in the November 3, 1998, general election.

3. Carol A. Bennett is the County Clerk of Phelps County, Missouri. As such, she was the election authority for District No. 149 and District No. 150 in the November 3, 1998 general election. 115.015, RSMo 1994.

4. This contest of election asks this House of Representatives to declare that there were irregularities of sufficient magnitude to cast doubt on the validity of the election for state representative of House District No. 149 on November 3, 1998, and to order a new election for the contested office. 115.565, RSMo 1994. The facts will show that the election authority improperly allowed seventy-five voters to cast ballots in House District No. 149 when they reside in House District No. 150. Furthermore, the election authority improperly allowed four voters to cast ballots in House District No. 150 when they reside in House District No. 149. Added together, the number of people who voted in the wrong district is more than twice the margin of victory in the election. Since, according to the official results certified by the Secretary of State, the Contestant lost the election by only thirty-one votes, seventy-nine voters who voted improperly creates irregularities of significant magnitude to cast doubt upon the election.

5. As will be shown below, in 1992 the Reapportionment Commission set the boundaries for House District No. 149. The then city limits of the city of Rolla were in District No. 149 as set by the Reapportionment Commission. In 1998 the city of Rolla annexed certain land south of the city limits. Some of the annexed land had been included in District No. 150 by the Reapportionment Commission. The Phelps County Clerk, without any statutory authority, in contravention of Article III, Section 2 of the Constitution of Missouri, and without notice to the Contestant, altered the boundaries of District No. 149 by moving the annexed land from District No. 150 into District No. 149. Due to this error, seventy-five voters voted in District No. 149 illegally. Furthermore, four voters who live in District No. 149 voted in District No. 150. These disputed seventy-nine votes are over twice the number of votes that decided the election.

II. Jurisdiction

6. The House of Representatives has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Sections 115.563 through 115.573 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri.

III. Statement of Facts

7. Article III, Section 2 of the Constitution of Missouri provides for a Reapportionment Commission appointed by the governor to establish the districts of the House of Representatives. Article III, Section 2 provides, in pertinent part:

The commission shall reapportion the representatives by dividing the population of the state by the number one hundred sixty-three and shall establish each district so that the population of that district shall, as nearly as possible, equal that figure.

Mo. Const. Art. III, 2. Thus the Missouri constitution grants the commission the sole authority to establish the boundaries of the House districts.

8. In 1992, pursuant to Article III, Section 2, of the Constitution of Missouri, the Reapportionment Commission filed with the Secretary of State a final statement of the numbers and the boundaries of the House of Representatives districts together with a map of each of the one hundred sixty-three districts. Included was a map of District No. 149 and District No. 150. True and accurate copies of the map of District No. 149 and District No. 150 filed with the Secretary of State are attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

9. The Secretary of State provided a map of District No. 149 and District No. 150 to the Phelps County Clerk, who maintains said copy in her archives. A true and accurate copy of the map of District No. 149 and District No. 150 maintained by the Phelps County Clerk is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

10. According to the official map of District No. 149 and District No. 150 (Exhibit 1 hereto), the following two areas are located in the districts as set out in (a) and (b) below:

(a) The area commonly known as the "Line Barnitz/Longview Area" is located in District No. 150. A hand-drawn replica of the relevant area in Exhibit 1 hereto that highlights the Line Barnitz/Longview Area in yellow is attached hereto as Exhibit 3. The boundary line between District No. 149 and District No. 150 is highlighted in pink. At the time of the reapportionment in 1992, the Line Barnitz/Longview Area was not in the city limits of the City of Rolla.

(b) The Dillon South precinct is located partially in District No. 149. The area commonly known as the "Stately Mansions Mobile Home Park" is located in Dillon South precinct in District No. 149. The Dillon South/Stately Mansions Mobile Home Park area has been highlighted in orange in Exhibit 3 hereto.

11. On February 26, 1998, the Contestant filed a valid declaration of candidacy with the secretary of state. A true and accurate copy of the declaration of candidacy is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

12. Sometime in early March, 1998, the Contestant requested and received a map of District No. 149 from the Phelps County Clerk. A true and accurate copy of the map is attached hereto as Exhibit 5. This map shows that the Line Barnitz/Longview Area is located in District No. 150, the Dillon South Precinct is located partially in District No. 149, and the Stately Mansions Mobile Home Park is located in District No. 149. This map is substantially similar to the official map filed with the secretary of state, Exhibit 1, hereto.

13. On November 26, 1996, the City Council of the City of Rolla, Missouri, passed an ordinance providing for the annexation into the City certain land south of the then city limits. A true and accurate copy of the Ordinance of November 26, 2996, which includes a legal description of the land sought to be annexed into the city, is attached hereto as Exhibit 6. The Line Barnitz/Longview Area was included in the land sought to be annexed by the City of Rolla.

14. On April 7, 1998, an election was held and the voters approved the annexation described in Exhibit 6 hereto. On June 7, 1998, the annexation of the land described in Exhibit 6 hereto became effective. A true and accurate copy of maps showing the annexation area is attached hereto as Exhibit 7. According to these maps, the Line Barnitz/Longview Area is included within the new city limits of the City of Rolla.

15. Attached hereto as Exhibit 8 is a true and accurate copy of a map of District No. 149 prepared by the Phelps County Clerk sometime after the annexation. This map shows that the Line Barnitz/Longview Area was moved from District No. 150 to District No. 149 after the annexation. This map is different from the map provided earlier by the Phelps County Clerk to the Contestant, Exhibit 5, hereto. The Phelps County Clerk gave no notice to the Contestant that she had changed the boundaries of District No. 149.

16. On November 3, 1998, the general election was held for state representative for District No. 149. Robert L. May was the Republican Party candidate, and Jerry E. McBride was the Democratic Party candidate.

17. The results of the election were 5,179 votes for McBride, 5,150 votes for May, a difference of twenty-nine votes. A true and accurate copy of the official results as reported by the Secretary of State is attached hereto as Exhibit 9.

18. On November 6, 1998, the Contestant became aware that several voters who resided in the Line Barnitz/Longview Area had voted in District No. 149. Shortly thereafter, the Contestant became aware that one voter who resided in the Stately Mansions Trailer Park Area said he had voted in District No. 150.

19. On November 6, 1998, the Contestant filed a request for a recount with the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State asked the Contestant to withdraw the report for recount until the Secretary of State had certified the election. A true and accurate copy of the recount request is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.

20. On November 13, 1998, the Contestant spoke to the Phelps County Clerk about why the boundaries for District No. 149 and District No. 150 had been changed. The Clerk told the Contestant that the Line Barnitz/Longview Area had been annexed into the City of Rolla, and since the City of Rolla before the annexation was entirely in District No. 149, she moved the Line Barnitz/Longview Area from District No. 150 to District No. 149.

21. On or about November 19, 1998, the Contestant spoke with the Phelps County Clerk for a second time. Again, the Contestant asked why the boundaries for District No. 149 and District No. 150 were changed. The Clerk told the Contestant that she moved the boundaries because the Line Barnitz/Longview Area was annexed into the City of Rolla. The Clerk also told the Contestant that it had been done that way in the past and that is what is typically done. The Clerk further told the Contestant that she had done the same thing in the City of St. James when that city had annexed land.

22. On November 24, 1998, the Secretary of State certified the election for state representative for District No. 149. See Exhibit 9, hereto, described above.

23. On November 30, 1998, the Contestant filed a second request for a recount. A true and accurate copy of the second request for recount is attached hereto as Exhibit 11.

24. On December 9, 1998, the Phelps County Clerk announced the results of the recount. A true and accurate copy of the recount results are attached hereto as Exhibit 12. The recount indicated 5,182 for McBride, 5,151 votes for May, a difference of 31 votes.

25. According to voter records provided by the Phelps County Clerk, there are one hundred three registered voters residing in the Line Barnitz/Longview Area. A true and accurate copy of the registered voter list is attached hereto as Exhibit 13. Exhibit 13 was generated from the complete voter records provided by the Phelps County Clerk by identifying all registered voters who reside on the streets in the Line Barnitz/Longview Area as stated on Exhibits 5 and 8 hereto. The registered voters that voted in the November 3, 1998, election have the designation "Y" under the heading "Gen98" on Exhibit 13. A total of seventy-five voters in the Line Barnitz/Longview Area voted in the November 3, 1998, election in District No. 149.

26. However, as shown in Exhibits 1 through 3, voters in the Line Barnitz/Longview Area are located in District No. 150 and were improperly moved by the Phelps County Clerk in violation of Article III, Section 2 of the Constitution of Missouri based upon her inaccurate assumption that annexed areas are to be moved into the District where the city is located. Accordingly, these seventy-five voters incorrectly voted in the District No. 149 election.

27. According to the voter records provided by the Phelps County Clerk, there are fifty registered voters residing in the Dillon South/Stately Mansions Mobile Home Park Area. A true and accurate copy of the registered voter list is attached hereto as Exhibit 14. The registered voters that voted in the November 3, 1998, election have the designation "Y" under the heading "Gen98" on Exhibit 14. These records show one voter in the Stately Mansions Mobile Home Park who voted in District 150 should have voted in District 149. See page 2 of Exhibit 14, hereto.

28. The records in Exhibit 14 hereto also show that three other voters in the Dillon South Precinct voted in District No. 150 when they should have voted in District 149. It appears from the records that the Phelps county clerk inadvertently placed these three voters in the wrong District as described below:

a. Joshua and Laura McDonald live at the same address. Page 3 of Exhibit 14 shows that the Phelps County Clerk allowed Laura to vote in District No. 149 and Joshua to vote in District No. 150, even though they live at the same address.

b. Dee Anne and Jeffrey Sandquist live in Dillon South precinct, which as noted above, is in District No. 149. However, page 3 of Exhibit 14 shows that they both were allowed to vote in District No. 150.

29. According to the record in Exhibits 13 and 14, a total of seventy-nine voters were improperly placed in the wrong district by the Phelps County Clerk and also were allowed to vote in the wrong district.

30. Missouri statutes allow any candidate who wishes to contest an election for the office of state representative to do so by filing a verified petition with the speaker of the house. 115.565, RSMo 1994. The House of Representatives has exclusive jurisdiction of the contest. 115.563.1, RSMo 1994. The House has authority to order the holding of a new election if it "determines there were irregularities of sufficient magnitude to cast doubt on the validity of the initial election . . ." 115.593, RSMo 1994.

31. Based upon the facts as set out above, this House of Representatives should order the holding of a new election. Only the Reapportionment Commission has the authority to set the boundaries for districts for the House of Representatives. However, as shown above, the Phelps County Clerk plainly and unambiguously changed the boundaries. See, Exhibits 4 and 8, hereto. The Phelps county Clerk, with no statutory authority and in contravention of the Missouri Constitution, changed the boundary of District No. 149. Furthermore, she did so without any notice to the Contestant, thus depriving him of the opportunity to campaign in this area. Seventy-seven voters from the Line Barnitz/Longview Area cast ballots in the election. Additionally, four other voters in District No. 149 were allowed to vote in District No. 150. Since the Contestant lost by only thirty-one votes, it is clear that the Clerk's errors have materially affected the outcome of the election.

Prayer for Relief

For the reasons set forth above, the Contestant, Robert L. May, respectfully prays for the following relief:

1. That this House of Representatives order that the November 3, 1998, election for state representative for House District No. 149 be declared void due to voting irregularities.

2. That this House of Representatives order the election authority to conduct a new election for state representative for House District No. 149.

3. Such other and further relief as the House of Representatives deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Speaker Gaw:

As you are aware, I will take office at midnight, New Year's Day, January 1, 1999, as Associate Circuit Judge for Scotland County, Missouri. To avoid any conflict, I regretfully must leave my service in the House a few days early, at the end of December. I am submitting my resignation as State Representative for the First District, effective 12:00 a.m., January 1, 1999.

Best wishes for the holiday season, and for a productive legislative session in 1999!

Dear Mr. Speaker,

Congratulations on the recent elections. I'm sure you are relieved to have November behind you. As you may have heard, I was successful in my bid for Texas County Prosecutor. Texas County officials are to be sworn in on December 31, 1998, which creates an overlap with my duties as State Representative. I would therefore like to request that you accept my resignation as State Representative for the 147th District as of 12 Noon on December 31, 1998. Please let me know if there is anything else I need to do to make my resignation official.

I thank you for your leadership these past two years, and offer my best wishes for the upcoming session.

Sincerely,

/s/ Doug Gaston
State Representative 147th District

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

SECOND DAY, Thursday, January 7, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"Lead a life worthy of your calling...eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." (Eph. 4:1-3)

One point made yesterday by Secretary of State Cook struck me. There are 25 new members in the House and altogether then there have been just 6,459 in the state's history.

Gracious God, you know this puts our responsibilities into some perspective. It is even more of a privilege when we see how few have been elected to serve. Make us worthy, merciful God, to uphold the external decorum of the House as we were challenged yesterday, but also to work for whatever change is needed to serve the citizens, ending racial and ethnic rivalry. Bless our efforts to allow more of our young citizens to be saved from a negative life by educating them to their fullest potential from their earliest years. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the first day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRD DAY, Monday, January 11, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"Do what is right and good in the sight of the Lord." (Dt. 6:18)

As we begin this week, we pause to ask a blessing on the State and Nation as we go about our work. The debate about impeachment is stretching our understanding of democracy as we go into uncharted waters. May this be a guide for us as we face new challenges and new ideas in our own lives and political work. We cannot always go back to check precedent, but there are wiser heads we can rely on and some basic principles out of which conclusions can be drawn and decisions made.

Gracious God, guide us, humble us knowing that we are not always in charge, do not have all the answers, but that You can provide them if we search earnestly. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

A footnote shall be annexed to the first page of each bill which contains material enclosed in bold-faced brackets to the following effect:

"Explanation--Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law."

Where a section is completely rewritten, the existing section shall be set forth in small type in bold-faced brackets in a note following the new section but the changes need not be distinguished. Any bill or substitute which does not comply with this rule shall not be placed upon the calendar.

(c) Number of Copies Submitted. Each bill shall be submitted in triplicate.

Number of Copies Printed.

Rule 40. One thousand copies of all House Bills and House Joint Resolutions shall be printed. The Chief Clerk may provide for the printing of a lesser or greater number if he/she deems it appropriate.

Reading by Title Sufficient.

Rule 41. The reading of a bill by its title shall be deemed sufficient reading unless the further reading be called for. If the further reading be called for and no objection made, the bill shall be read at length; if, however, objection be made, the question shall be determined by the majority of the House.

To Go Upon Calendar-When.

Rule 42. No House Bill shall be placed upon the calendar for second reading until the legislative day following the introduction and first reading of said bill.

Timing of Placement on Calendar;

Federal Mandate Calendar.

Rule 43. (a) When a bill is reported from the committee with the recommendation that it "do pass" or "without recommendation", it shall go upon the calendar of the House. No bill shall be taken up for consideration by the House, prior to the first Monday in May, unless it has been upon the calendar for at least one legislative day.

(b) No bill shall be placed on the Federal Mandate Calendar unless it is federally mandated, immediate in nature and reduces revenues or savings if not enacted. A federal mandate bill may only contain subject matter concerning the federal mandate. A member wishing for his or her bill to be considered for placement on the Federal Mandate Calendar shall request such in writing to the Chair of the Committee where such bill has been assigned. The written request should state the deadline with which the state must comply with the federal mandate and what will happen if the state doesn't comply by this date. A copy of the federal statute(s) or regulation(s) mandating what the state must do shall accompany the written request. If said bill is reported do pass from the committee recommending that said bill be placed on the Federal Mandate Calendar, the Chair shall submit to the Speaker a copy of the original written request along with a copy of the federal statute(s) or regulation(s) mandating state action. If the Speaker concurs that said bill complies with all requirements of this rule, he shall place said bill on the Federal Mandate Calendar.

Motion to Place on Calendar.

Rule 44. If a bill is reported from the committee with the recommendation that it "do not pass" it shall not go on the calendar of the House unless ordered by a constitutional majority. A motion to have a bill placed upon the calendar must be made within three legislative days after the bill is reported and when the author of the bill is present or the motion is made by a member upon the author's written request. If no such action is taken within said time, the bill shall lie on the table.

Bills Laid Over Informally.

Rule 45. When a bill is reached, in its order, to be perfected and printed, or to be agreed to and read a third time and placed upon its final passage, it may upon the request of the author thereof, if a House Bill, or, (upon the request of its sponsor in the House, if a Senate Bill), be laid over informally, and thereafter called up at any time, in any order, when otherwise in order.

Consent Calendar.

Rule 48. (a) Which Bills May Be Placed. Each committee, after a favorable vote on a bill without amendment, may further determine by a second and affirmative vote of every member present whether or not such bill is of a noncontroversial nature. Any bill which increases net expenditures of the state or reduces net revenue of the state shall not be considered by the committee for consent; provided however, any bill which specifically authorizes an easement or right-of-way involving state property may be considered by the committee for placement on the Consent Calendar.

(b) Procedure. If the committee shall so determine, the committee report shall include a request that a bill be placed on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection". Any bill so reported shall automatically be placed on that calendar and after said bill has remained on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection" for five legislative days, it shall be ordered perfected and advanced to the "House Consent Calendar for Third Reading and Final Passage" without further action of the House, unless five members, with at least two from each political party, have filed written objection with the Chief Clerk. If such objections are filed, the bill shall be sent to the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules. If the Committee on Rules and Joint Rules concur in the report to place the bill on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection", then the bill shall be deemed perfected and placed on the "House Consent Calendar for Third Reading and Final Passage" without further action by the House. If the committee does not concur with the report to place the bill on the "House Consent Calendar for Perfection", then the bill shall be returned to the committee from which it was originally reported. An objection made by five members under this rule cannot be rescinded.

AMENDMENTS

Of Committees and Substitutes.

Rule 49. (a) In Writing. Proposed amendments must be reduced to writing on demand. Every amendment shall be read in its entirety by the clerk unless it has been distributed in advance, the amendment's sponsor requests waiver of the reading, and there is no objection to the request. An amendment shall be considered to have been distributed in advance if, before it is offered, it has been placed on the members' desks in paper form.

(b) What Amendments and Substitute Amendments are in Order. When a bill, motion or proposition is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it shall also be in order to offer a further amendment by way of substitute, to which one amendment may be offered, but which shall not be voted on until the original amendment is perfected, but either may be withdrawn before amendment or decision is had thereon.

A House substitute must be distributed to the members at least one legislative day prior to its consideration by the House; except after the Second Monday in May, no House Substitute shall be taken up and considered unless same has been distributed to the members at least two hours before consideration in the House. A House amendment which, in the opinion of the chair, is of such scope and length, that it is in reality a house substitute, must be distributed in the same manner as a house substitute.

(e) One House Substitute at a Time. Only one House substitute shall be in order at one time.

(f) When Federal Mandate Bills Can Be Amended. Amendments to House and Senate Bills - Federal Mandate are [not] permitted only within the scope of the federal mandate [except]. Perfecting amendments are permitted to make technical corrections.

The Chief Clerk shall have one thousand copies of the substitute printed for the use of the House, except that the Chief Clerk may provide for the printing of a lesser or greater number if he/she deems it appropriate. No committee substitute shall be called from the calendar of the House until the printed copies have reached the members. Amendments, if any, may be offered to the substitute before the vote on the motion to adopt the substitute is taken. If the substitute is defeated the original bill shall be before the House for perfection and shall immediately be considered.

Order of Amendments.

Rule 51. When amendments to any bill, motion or proposition are pending they shall be voted on in the following order:

(1) Amendments to the amendment are disposed of before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment is in order at one time; but as rapidly as one is disposed of by rejection or incorporation as a part of the amendment, another is in order as long as any member desires to offer one.

(2) Amendments to the substitute are next voted on, and may be offered seriatim as fast as disposed of until the substitute is perfected.

(3) The substitute is next voted on. Both the amendment and the substitute having been perfected and presented in final form, the House or committee makes its choice of the two.

(4) The amendment is voted on last. If the substitute has been agreed to, the vote comes on the amendment as amended by the substitute.

Amendments Incorporated in Bill.

Rule 52. All amendments adopted by the House to a bill originating in the House shall be incorporated in the bill as perfected, and the bill, as thus perfected, shall be printed for the use of the members before its final passage. #### BILLS

Ayes and Noes Taken.

When a bill shall have passed the House and been returned from the Senate with amendments, said amendments may be concurred in collectively, or amended, by a majority of the members elected, unless objection be made, in which case the vote shall be taken severally, and no amendment or amendments shall be concurred in by the House except by a constitutional majority and the names of those voting for and against recorded upon the Journal of the House.

Repassage.

Rule 54. When all Senate amendments to House bills have been concurred in by the constitutional majority of the House, the question shall then be put: "Shall the bill as amended be passed?" On this question the ayes and noes shall be called for, and as on its first passage, a constitutional majority shall be necessary to the final passage of the bill.

Majority to Perfect.

Rule 55. A quorum being present, a majority of those voting aye and no shall be sufficient to perfect a bill and order it printed.

Amending After Perfection; Perfecting Amendments.

Rule 56. No bill shall be amended after being perfected and printed without a reconsideration of the vote by which it was ordered perfected and printed and if said bill be amended it shall again be perfected and printed, except that a perfecting amendment to make technical corrections is in order after the bill has been ordered perfected and printed and before it has been read the third time.

Motion for Final Passage.

Rule 57. When the Committee on Bills Perfected and Passed reports a bill truly perfected and printed, it shall go upon the calendar to be agreed to and passed. When the bill is taken up in its order, the question shall then be: "Shall the bill be agreed to, read a third time and put upon its final passage?" If a constitutional majority sustains the question the bill shall be put immediately upon its passage.

The perfecting amendment may be directed to the bill or to amendments to the bill. If a perfecting amendment is adopted, the bill as finally passed with the perfecting amendment shall be returned to the other house for its concurrence in the perfecting amendment.

(d) Exceeding the Differences. Unless authority is granted by the House to exceed the differences, the conferees must confine themselves to matters that are within the scope of the difference between the House position and the Senate position. When a report is offered for adoption, the point of order that the conferees have exceeded the difference shall be in order. The Speaker may rule on the point of order or may place the question of whether the conferees have exceeded the differences before the House for a vote. A majority of members voting prevails on the question.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

FOURTH DAY, Tuesday, January 12, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"Thank God constantly." (I Thess. 2:13)

I was reading a piece of history recently about a man in New York in the 1930s who was collecting a pension of $2000 a year. The gift came from Charles II of England who was befriended and helped by an ancestor of the man in 17th century England when there was a price on the future King's head. The King ordered the pension to be paid in perpetuity and set up the fund.

Today, gracious God, we so often find that we are not always grateful for those who reach out to us. We often take the love and loyalty of others for granted. Give us a spirit of gratefulness in all ways. Above all, we give thanks to You, the source of all gifts and all giving. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the third day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

FIFTH DAY, Wednesday, January 13, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"Learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression." (Is. 1:17).

Today we receive the annual State of the Judiciary message from Chief Justice Duane Benton.

We are a people of the law, before which all are considered equal. Our pledge of allegiance includes the phrase "with liberty and justice for all." We know that the reality and the ideal do not always match. The public also has a sometimes distorted understanding of justice from TV police and other programs and Judge Judy and before that Judge Wapner; the OJ Simpson trial and the current debate about perjury and "high crimes and misdemeanors" do not always enlighten the general public.

We pray this morning, Eternal God, that our own conduct would be anchored in Your Law, which we humans come to discover slowly, and painfully and not without conflict. We pray for an increase of civil debate and conversation around the complicated issues of the day. Our human law is often based on what we perceive to be Your Law, Eternal God, and we ask for patience and the ability to listen in our hearts to each other. We give special thanks for the separation of powers which allows us to divide the political power and wait for the resolution of some of the issues which face us. May politics and raw political power never blind us to the legal tradition we have inherited, which presumes that some how what is right is what is legal and what is legal is ethical. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Maddie O'Mara, James O'Mara, Meghan Cummings and Katie Cummings.

The Journal of the fourth day was approved as corrected.

The doorkeeper announced the approach of the Honorable Duane Benton, Chief Justice of the Missouri Supreme Court. Chief Justice Benton was duly escorted to the House Chamber and to the Speaker's dais where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

By

Chief Justice Duane Benton

January 13, 1999

Mr. SpeakerMr. PresidentMembers of the 90th General Assembly:

"The life of the law has not been logic. The life of the law has been experience." So said Oliver Wendell Holmes- one of the most famous justices of the United States Supreme Court. It reminds me, though, of an old Missouri saying: "Experience is what you get, when you go looking for something else."

The first experience I should tell about - for the three new senators and 20 new representatives not here last year - is my own experience with the General Assembly. My first connection to state government was working as an intern right here in the House of Representatives. Later, while in law school, I drafted legislation for House members. More recently, the Senate confirmed me to four different positions on boards and in the executive branch of state government. I have been at hearings that seemed to last forever, and others that were seemingly over in seconds. On a personal note, I have enjoyed serving as Chief Justice for the past 18 months, and I look forward to my next six months in that capacity. I thank you for the hospitality you have shown, and appreciate my two opportunities to address you.

In this State of the Judiciary address, I want to report to you on the experience of the third branch of government, and how we together can build on that experience to improve the structure of the judiciary.

Twenty years ago, the General Assembly - at the request of the judiciary - examined our branch of government and proposed a constitutional amendment that reorganized the structure of Missouri courts from top to bottom. This became what is now Article V of the Constitution. Among other reforms, that new Article V unified the courts of this state and organized them into a hierarchical pyramid. As a result, the courts can better serve your constituents, and cases move through the system as they never had before. I am proud to tell you there are no case backlogs in Missouri courts. Your amendment has worked. For 20 years, there has been no major change in the structure of the judiciary. For example, during those two decades, we have handled more and more cases, but have had very few new judgeships created.

The Article V constitutional amendment took effect on January 2, 1979. Today, in 1999, based on 20 years experience, I present some changes to the structure of the judiciary that will help achieve our ultimate goal: the prompt access to justice by the people of this state from a judiciary second to none. As the insightful commentator Alexis de Tocqueville observed about a century and a half ago, Americans "consider society as a body in a state of improvement, humanity as a changing scene, in which nothing is, or ought to be permanent; and Americans admit that what appears to them today to be good, may be superseded by something better tomorrow." This General Assembly - bridging the 20th and 21st centuries - can make some course corrections that will build an even better judiciary.

During this session, the judicial branch will ask you to make the clerk of each circuit court an appointed position. Election of circuit clerks no longer suits the needs of the modern judicial system. As late as when the 1979 constitutional amendment was adopted, circuit clerks were locally paid and had more discretion in the performance of their duties.

Twenty years ago, the General Assembly considered whether circuit clerks ought to be elected. The 1979 constitutional amendment left the matter open. As amended, the Constitution now reads: "Until otherwise provided by law, circuit clerks in each circuit and county shall be selected in the same manner as provided by law on the effective date of this article". The Constitution invites you to address this issue.

Today, circuit clerks are state employees, paid by the state, performing their duties to rigorous state standards. As a result, the position of circuit clerk has fewer and fewer discretionary duties. Missouri law details specifically how case files are handled, the deadlines for action, and how money is collected and disbursed. In contrast, county commissioners, sheriffs, prosecutors - among others - enjoy a great deal of discretion in carrying out their jobs. In accordance with court guidelines, the circuit clerk supervises data processing for the court, coordinates the court's staff, and docket cases for each judge. Additionally, by Missouri statute, circuit clerks must help citizens seeking domestic relations restraining orders, or requesting enforcement of visitation orders.

For those of you with in-district assistants, electing circuit clerks is like electing your in-district assistant. More generally, electing circuit clerks is like electing the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of this House. Legislative assistants and your clerks are highly responsible positions that ensure the day-to-day functioning of the General Assembly. They have many administrative duties that do not end when session ends. Your assistants have few discretionary duties, but instead carry out their jobs subject to your direction as the elected decision-maker. No one should seriously recommend that these legislative clerks be elected by the voters of Missouri.

More to the point, there is no training program or background that qualifies a person to be a legislative clerk or district assistant - they have to be appointed to the position and "learn on the job". Similarly, there is no training program or background that qualifies a person to be a circuit clerk, other than on the job experience.

The time has come for Missouri to join the growing number of states that appoint most of their judicial administrators. Missouri spends a great deal of state money and time in order to train newly elected circuit clerks to fulfill the requirements of their jobs. We should not lose a highly trained employee after just four years, often to someone with no background or qualifications for the job.

Last week, I met with the leadership of the Circuit Clerks Association. While there are differences of opinion and degrees of commitment, about two-thirds of the circuit clerks themselves believe that their positions should be appointed. On behalf of the Judicial Conference, I endorse legislation to make the position of circuit clerk appointed rather than elected.

A second structural issue is the position of commissioner in the circuit courts of this state. In commendable efforts, in various areas of the law, the General Assembly has enacted legislation that commissioners, rather than judges, hear certain types of cases. Currently, Missouri law establishes commissioners in certain counties and circuits to hear probate, juvenile, domestic relations, drug-related, traffic-related and landlord/tenant cases. There are now over two dozen (26, to be exact) full-time circuit court commissioners in this state, and a couple of part-time commissioners.

These commissioners have served well, meeting the needs of your constituents in a number of critical areas. Commissioners have gone beyond the courthouses to serve the people, such as in St. Louis County, where traffic court commissioners hear cases all over the county. Juvenile court commissioners hear cases at juvenile centers and other settings away from the main courthouses.

However, as the number of commissioners has multiplied, the challenges to their authority have also increased. The 1979 constitutional amendment simply does not anticipate commissioners acting as judges. Serious questions have been presented to the Supreme Court regarding the authority of circuit court commissioners to sign final court judgments, to issue warrants and to take other judicial action. These questions continue to be raised. In disapproving Senate Bill 614 last year, the Governor questioned the wisdom of extending judicial authority to persons not selected as are other trial court judges.

I am pleased to stand with the Governor and call for the conversion of circuit court commissioners to judges. Conversion could take place no later than the expiration of the current commissioners' terms. This legislation has almost no cost, since commissioners are paid at the same level as judges. Passage of this legislation will eliminate the nagging questions about those who decide the people's cases.

As I travel the state of Missouri as Chief Justice, when I walk the halls of this building, I am frequently asked about court automation. No project will enable the judiciary to better serve your constituents than new court technology. Court automation allows the judicial system to operate efficiently within the structure mandated in 1979. You are to be commended for recognizing the needs of your constituents by enacting and continuing to support the automation of the courts. Missouri is now recognized as the leader in the country in computerizing our law enforcement and courts.

The federal government searched the states last fall for a site to experiment with linking juvenile officers, in order to study the effect on juvenile crime. They quickly settled on Missouri as a model for the nation. Now all juvenile offices through the state are linked. A local juvenile officer can ask all other juvenile officers about the history and status of particular juvenile offenders, in order to tailor services for a specific juvenile. Congress also chose Missouri as the state to pioneer a database that collects background information on juvenile offenders.

Public access to case files on the Internet has made its debut. In Jackson County, the public can access on-line probate information. Court automation is developing a system for all citizens to access court dockets without having to visit the courthouse. The Eastern District of the Court of Appeals will have electronic access to its case files within the next month.

The Eastern District Court of Appeals can have such public access because that court is the first appellate court in America to use the same case management system as is used in the trial courts. Other states' courts have to convert data from the trial courts' systems, to the system used by the appellate court. Missouri has adapted the same case management for both trial courts and appellate courts.

As I reported last year, we are now installing court automation throughout the state. The groundwork has been laid for an automated judicial system that will be the national model for some time to come.

I should address other items before you this year. Several filed bills would exclude various persons from jury service. This issue was addressed in the 1995 report of The Advisory Commission on the Organization of the Judicial Department, a commission appointed by the governor. That Commission noted "jury service is an obligation and privilege of citizenship from which no eligible citizen should be disqualified or exempt." The Commission also said, "The ability to be excused upon request contributes substantially to reducing a representative jury since it is likely that those who can avoid jury service will do so." I request that the General Assembly most carefully consider legislation excluding any person from jury service, in order to preserve one of the great hallmarks of our justice system: the right to trial by a jury representative of the community.

But I do recommend that you lessen the burden of jury service. Juror compensation is a glaring shortfall. The Supreme Court recently hosted a diverse citizen's group of educators, law enforcement, community leaders and others to solicit changes in the judiciary to meet the needs of Missourians into the 21st century. This group cited inadequate juror pay as a major challenge in Missouri justice. This issue was also noted in 1995 by the Governor's Advisory Commission I earlier mentioned. Statutory minimum jury compensation remains $6 per day, and has been so since 1957 - for over 41 years. Such minimal pay causes many of your constituents to avoid juror service due to the financial hardship of serving on a jury.

Inadequate juror compensation most hurts those called for lengthy jury trials. The National Center for State Courts has proposed that the states adopt legislation that keeps low levels of juror compensation for short service, say 2 or 3 days, but then dramatically increases juror payment for longer service. I am pleased to report that the average length of a jury trial in Missouri is less than 3 days, so an increase in compensation beyond such a point could ease juror hardship while not greatly increasing total jury expenses. Again, I am pleased that proposals to improve jury compensation are serious this year.

I began my remarks by referring to the "life of the law", which is not logic, but is experience. Another definition of law also focuses on experience and links it to the "goal of the law". Samuel Johnson, a non-attorney author, defined law as, "the last result of human wisdom, acting upon human experience, for the benefit of the public." From experience, we know the unified court system of 1979 has well served your constituents for the last 20 years. Experience shows that some course corrections will make the courts even better able to serve the needs of the public for years to come.

Have a great session!

The Joint Session was dissolved by Lieutenant Governor Wilson.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

SIXTH DAY, Thursday, January 14, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudolph W. Beard, First Presbyterian Church.

Loving God, as we unite our hearts in this prayer, we ask that You will teach us how to trust in You, and trust in Your truth for our lives.

Forgive us that we are so anxious in all we say and do, to have the approval of others, forgetting that it is Your approval that brings peace and leads to a just society.

Strengthen us and bless this House in its highest values; keep us compassionate, and by Your grace, help us to do better and to be better. And to You be glory and honor now and forever....Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

NINTH DAY, Wednesday, January 20, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Betty Thompson.

We thank You for allowing us another day. A day to be a little better than the day before. You promised that what ever one does to the least of us, we do to You. Let us remember not what we are, or who we are, but who we are because we are truly God's children. We want to remember our people, our families back home who sacrifice so much for us to come and do not our will, but Your will. Bless this 90th General Assembly that we will be not what we want to be, but what you want us to be and look upon and bless those among us with loved ones that have passed this way and those that are sick. Bless this distinguished body as well as our Speaker and our President of the United States. We ask those blessings in Your name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighth day was approved as corrected.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Honorable Mel Carnahan. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

BY

GOVERNOR MEL CARNAHAN

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Mr. President Pro Tem, Distinguished State Officials, Members of the 90th General Assembly, and Citizens of the State of Missouri:

INTRODUCTION

Our nation hungers for heroes.

It is the nature of our spirit.

Heroes founded this land.

They built its greatness.

And now it is in the hands of the heroes of today to shape its vision for a new century.

For the ideals that inspired the American dream can only remain strong if we have the courage and commitment to expand their possibilities.

Last year the eyes of the entire world were riveted on Missouri to watch the birth of a new American hero.

The young man might have seemed to some an unlikely candidate to reach such heights.

After all, he had 20/500 vision, a bulging disk in his back, weak arches that required special shoe inserts, and had undergone three foot surgeries.

Yet at 8:18 p.m., on September 8, in St. Louis, none of those obstacles seemed important.

Mark McGwire sent the first pitch sailing over the corner of the left field wall and into the history books.

But the McGwire miracle was far from over.

By the time the season ended, Mark not only broke the record for the number of home runs hit in a single season--he demolished it.

And he did it with a humility and grace that made Missouri proud.

However, the true heroism of Mark McGwire is taking place off the field.

He is donating one million dollars for the next three years to help abused and neglected children.

The reason?

Because he wants to give something back to a world that has given him so much.

From his own success, he wants to create opportunities for others.

Throughout our state, thousands of Missourians share those goals.

They may never be in the history books, or make millions of dollars, but they are dedicated to helping others.

These are today's heroes.

It is my privilege to introduce three of these who are here with us today .

First, I would like you to meet the youngest member of our group--Ashlee Vann from Springfield.

Ashlee is a young girl with a big job.

She is only eleven, but she has been running a Kid's Café since she was nine.

Every evening, Ashlee feeds dinner to 60-70 needy children at her café.

She coordinates the entire project of preparing and serving the food, which is donated by Ozark Food Harvest.

Ashlee has three to four other people, including several adults, who work with her, and she does a great job.

Ashlee, would you please stand so we can recognize you for the work you do.

The second person I would like you to meet is Erika Lipiec from Maryville.

Erika is a high school freshman and has been actively involved in the anti-teen smoking campaign in her community for more than two years.

She has testified before her city council in support of a city youth anti-smoking program that she helped pass in 1997.

And she spoke at the Great American Smoke Out news conference last year.

Erika feels teen-age smoking is a serious problem and wants to improve the health of her generation.

Erika, we appreciate your work on behalf of the good health of Missouri citizens.

Please stand and be recognized.

Our third guest today is Laurie Sybert, who teaches second grade at Leland Mills Elementary School in Lake Ozark.

Laurie is one of those people we talk about when we say someone was "born to teach."

Her mother taught in a one-room schoolhouse and instilled in Laurie the need to go above and beyond what she thought she was capable of doing.

During her thirteen years in the classroom, Laurie has taught her students that same lesson.

Ten years ago, Laurie's ability to reach beyond her limits was tested.

She was diagnosed with MS.

Her symptoms became so bad five years ago that she could barely walk, and her doctor advised her to quit teaching.

Yet, this illness has inspired Laurie to be even more enthusiastic about her life and her work.

Today she lives each day to the fullest.

She is an outstanding example of the many excellent teachers we have in Missouri, and that is why she was selected as the 1998-99 Missouri Teacher of the Year.

Laurie, we want to show our appreciation for you and all the other Missouri educators who have dedicated their lives to preparing our young people for the future.

Please stand to be recognized.

All three of these honored guests here with us today are true Missouri heroes.

Each of them, in her own special way, is making a significant contribution to the success of our state by bettering the lives of others.

As we begin this 1999 legislative session, these Missourians should be an inspiration to all of us.

We, too, have accepted the responsibility of working on behalf of a better life for others.

Today, I come before you to ask your cooperation in working on behalf of the best interests of the people of Missouri as we prepare to meet the challenges of a new century.

ECONOMY

The foundation for our success is found in a thriving economy.

Only a few short years ago, constructing such a foundation seemed impossible.

In the early years of this decade, we were mired in a recession.

Our companies were downsizing, forcing many Missourians to seek a new job for the first time in years.

Yet today our unemployment rate is historically low.

According to the latest monthly reports, our unemployment numbers are the lowest in twenty years.

They are significantly lower than the national rate.

While Missouri's unemployment rate is holding at 3.3 percent, the national rate is 4.1.

Our aggressive approach to economic development and our landmark welfare reform efforts have made the difference.

Since 1992, we created over 350,000 new jobs and moved over 121,000 of our citizens off welfare.

We gained 382 new or expanding business operations last year alone.

This gain translates into over a billion dollars of new private investment in our state.

At the same time, Missourians are receiving a good return on their tax dollars.

By any objective measure, Missouri is a low tax, low spending state.

We are one of only nine states to receive the highly coveted Triple A bond rating from all three major bond rating agencies.

By completing a top to bottom review of government service--the first in several decades--we have further reduced waste, duplication, and bureaucracy.

We must continue to give Missourians an even better return on their investment.

TAX CUTS

Because we have nurtured such a growing economy, we have, for the first time in almost a generation, been able to give Missourians major permanent tax relief over the past few years.

In 1997, we eliminated the three percent general state sales tax on food.

These cuts give the average Missouri family the equivalent of two weeks of free groceries every year.

In 1998, we extended more tax relief to Missouri families and senior citizens.

We tripled the amount Missouri families can deduct for their dependents on their state income tax.

We expanded the property tax credit that senior and disabled citizens receive so that more Missourians on fixed incomes can stay in their homes.

And we implemented a new deduction so that those who care for elderly and disabled dependents in their homes could also receive tax relief.

In fact, since 1994, we have been able to provide Missouri families with almost 430 million dollars in permanent tax cuts.

I want to continue this good news for taxpayers.

Our robust economy this year makes it possible to offer new, meaningful tax relief.

First of all, we should increase the personal exemption that all Missourians receive on their state income tax by $900.

This will raise each taxpayer's personal exemption to $2,100.

Every Missouri income taxpayer will benefit from this tax cut.

Our citizens have not received an increase in this exemption since 1946.

This plan will reduce the amount of state income tax that couples pay by up to $108 annually and give individual filers up to a $54 tax break.

Over 200,000 more state households will not pay any state income tax at all.

We should also help Missouri businesses this year by reducing the amount they have to pay in corporate franchise tax.

The vast majority of our Missouri businesses are small, but they create most of our new jobs.

Right now, businesses have to pay this tax if they have assets of at least $200,000.

I want to raise that threshold to one million dollars.

This tax cut would virtually eliminate the corporate franchise tax for small businesses.

The third prong of my tax relief plan is targeted at helping the self-employed in Missouri.

Currently, many of these entrepreneurs cannot afford health insurance.

By allowing our smallest businesses to deduct health insurance premiums from their adjusted gross income, we can help them purchase affordable health care for themselves and their families.

When fully implemented, these three steps will give Missourians $191 million in new tax cuts.

And we can afford to give Missourians this reasonable tax relief without jeopardizing our investments in education, public safety, and other crucial state services.

EDUCATION

Without question, the most important thing we can do to prepare Missourians to meet the challenges of a new century is to offer a high quality education system.

From the day Missouri children are born, each experience shapes their future and the future of our state.

Because of our actions last session, Missouri families will have new opportunities to provide their children with the experiences they need in order to enter school ready to learn.

Our early childhood initiative provides thousands of Missouri children with access to affordable, quality child care so they can receive a strong start in life.

And I want to publicly thank our Missouri veterans for their help during the legislative process in getting this legislation passed.

These men and women who served in our Armed Forces to protect our generation are now helping to protect the next one through their support of new child care services for Missouri's children.

One of these new child care services that is receiving an exciting response is our "Jump Start" program.

Because of "Jump Start," Missouri parents will now have access to quality child care for their pre-school children in many of our public schools and communities.

So far, 160 sites at 124 different school districts have requested to participate in this innovative new approach to early childhood care and education.

To implement the work we began last year, my budget contains $55.6 million for early childhood care and education.

Of course, once our children enter public school, we want them to receive the best education possible.

I am pleased to announce that for the fourth year in a row I am recommending that you act to fully fund our new, more equitable school foundation formula.

By doing so, we give students the resources they need to receive a world class education.

This new formula was a part of our Outstanding Schools Act of 1993.

It implemented numerous reforms to make both Missouri schools and students more accountable for their progress.

I believe we can do more this session in the area of school accountability by ensuring that children are mastering the basics, particularly in the early grades.

The public and employers are rightfully concerned when students are promoted from one grade to the next without acquiring the basic academic knowledge and skills they need to succeed at the next grade level.

To address their concerns, I want to allow school districts to make remedial classes a condition of promotion for those students who have not mastered the basic skills of their particular grade level.

This is especially important in the early grades where students must build a solid foundation for advanced learning.

Our proposal provides the funds to enable schools to offer this extra attention to students who need it.

Students judged to be academically deficient can be required to attend summer school classes or tutorial activities after school or on weekends.

Schools can also require parents to sign a contract pledging to conduct home-based support activities as a condition of promotion.

Under this plan, our Department of Elementary and Secondary Education will examine how well schools are improving the scores of the lowest performing students on our assessment tests.

These results will be taken into consideration when the school's accreditation status is reviewed.

School districts will also keep their patrons informed on the progress of underachieving students through their public school report card.

These actions will reinforce our emphasis on high expectations and accountability for learning.

Over the past few years, we have focused a great deal of attention on making our schools safe places for our students to attend--inside, outside, and on the bus.

For the safety of our students, I have also directed the departments of Elementary and Secondary Education and Public Safety to jointly develop a model school disaster plan.

Many of our local schools are ill prepared to handle all aspects of the natural disasters and traumatic crises that can occur such as the tragic shootings in Jonesboro, Arkansas.

By developing a model plan, school districts will have a standard to compare against their local plan to see if changes need to be made.

A statewide crisis team will be available upon the request of local school officials to offer immediate assistance in the case of any school emergencies.

We will also finish our efforts this year to wire schools to the Internet, so Missouri students will have access to information from around the world.

This year, for the first time, every school district in Missouri will have high speed access to the Internet.

Computer literacy is a vital tool for today's job seekers and will be indispensable in the workplace of the future.

Last year, we made major progress in improving access to higher education for Missourians by authorizing four new programs.

Our new Bridge Scholarships, College Guarantee Program, Advantage Missouri, and MOSTARS Higher Education Savings Fund will make it possible for more of our high school graduates to gain the advanced education and training they need to meet the demands of today's employers.

My budget recommendations include $10.5 million to implement these new education access tools.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Making it possible for our young people to have access to a better and more advanced education is going to pay tremendous dividends for the generations to come.

But in the new world economy, we must ensure Missouri businesses have the kind of highly skilled workers they need to compete.

I am proud of the workforce development progress we have made.

Last year our workforce system helped 125,000 Missourians get jobs.

But even though we are using innovative practices such as one-stop career centers, our fragmented workforce system is not as efficient and user friendly as it could be.

Many Missourians who seek employment and training services are still being bounced from office to office to have their needs met.

During a one month period this summer, the same St. Louis employer received visits by job development representatives from three different state agencies that were all trying to help him find qualified people to fill his job openings.

This kind of duplication is a waste of time and money.

Therefore, we must take our approach to workforce development in a new direction.

Our administration wants to create a Division of Workforce Development.

According to our proposal, this new division will replace our existing Division of Job Development and Training that is under our Department of Economic Development.

All employment, training, and job matching functions from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations will move to the new division.

This consolidation will be a huge improvement for both workers and employers.

Employers will find state workforce services to be more responsive to their needs, and Missourians will be better prepared for the jobs that are available in the labor force.

HEALTH

Missourians will need all the education and training they can obtain to meet the challenges of a new century, but they must be healthy if they are to be able to use their talents productively.

Last year I came to you on behalf of the thousands of children in our state who are not receiving the basic primary and preventive health care services they need.

These families had no health insurance and no realistic prospect of obtaining affordable health insurance.

But today, many of these families are breathing a sigh of relief because you approved our Children's Health Initiative last session.

Thanks to our new MC-Plus Program for Kids, 90,000 children with no health insurance and no prospect of getting health insurance can now have access to affordable health care.

In only four months of the program, we have already enrolled nearly 25,000 children.

Thousands of Missouri children whose lives were in danger have been rescued by the responsible action we took last year, and I commend you for your support of this program.

Unfortunately, the good health of many of our citizens is in danger because of another threat--smoking.

Tobacco use is the leading cause of cancer in this country, and Missouri has the second highest rate of tobacco use of any state.

Approximately 28 percent of all Missouri adults smoke.

Even more alarming, recent studies indicate that more than 40 percent of our state's teenagers smoke.

These statistics are taking their toll.

Tobacco use contributes to 28 deaths in Missouri every day.

And now we know that nicotine found in tobacco is often a "gateway" drug that leads our teenagers to other substance abuse.

That is why the work of every day heroes like Erika here is so important.

Ninety percent of all smokers started smoking before the age of 21.

So if we can stop teens from smoking before they start, we can make significant headway in bringing down both the human and health care costs of tobacco use.

Now, because of a recent legal development, we have a tremendous opportunity to save the lives of countless Missouri young people in future years.

The recent Tobacco Settlement that was reached will allow Missouri to recover a portion of the health care costs our state and taxpayers have incurred or will incur because of smoking and tobacco use.

I want to applaud the work of our Attorney General Jay Nixon for his leadership in reaching this monumental agreement.

However, litigation involving these funds is still pending.

Payments under the settlement are not expected to begin until the year 2000.

Before any settlement dollars come to Missouri, a final judgment must be obtained.

In addition, the federal government may try to recover these funds or dictate their use.

While we intend to fight this action, none of us can be certain of the outcome.

Therefore, we need to set this money aside until we are confident that these funds are, in fact, available to Missouri.

I ask you to establish a Tobacco Settlement Trust Fund, pending the outcome of the litigation and other uncertainties.

Its purpose will be to preserve these funds for future investments to support anti-teen smoking initiatives and to improve the health and education of future generations.

Unless we can reduce the number of teens and young people who are smoking in Missouri, our taxpayers will continue to pay the huge financial and human price that is associated with tobacco.

The emotional well being of our citizens is just as important as their physical health.

When our citizens develop a serious mental illness, the necessary treatment they require can financially ruin their family.

The Joint Interim Committee on Mental Health Insurance Availability, co-chaired by Senator Jerry Howard and Rep. Mike Schilling, should be recognized for its examination of the accessibility of mental health services in Missouri.

I look forward to working with the committee members this session to see how we can improve both the quality and access to mental health services in Missouri.

PUBLIC SAFETY

In addition to preparing a healthier and better educated Missouri for a new century, we must ensure that our streets and neighborhoods are safe for our citizens.

During the six years of our administration, we have passed some of the toughest crime laws in the country.

Our new, tougher sentencing laws are helping to keep the most dangerous criminals behind bars and making juveniles that commit dangerous felonies serve adult sentences,

Partly as a result of tougher sentencing, we have experienced a great reduction in serious crime in Missouri.

Our new law passed last year to battle the evil producers and traffickers of the deadly drug methamphetamine is the toughest in the nation.

Other states are looking at our legislation as a model for their own approaches.

Our strong new laws to keep insidious sexual offenders under intense supervision for the rest of their lives are taking hold.

But we need to take some additional actions this session for the further protection of our citizens.

The law we enacted in 1994 requires sex offenders to register and provide information to local law enforcement agencies.

Currently, our citizens can only keep track of these criminals by contacting law enforcement offices or the State Highway Patrol's central registry during regular business hours.

To make this information more accessible to the public, we need to make it available on the Internet through our Department of Public Safety's home page.

Missourians going to that web page will be able to find out the offender's name, place of residence, date of birth, appearance, and criminal record.

We also need a juvenile sexual offender registry.

In 1997, 961 minors in our state were referred to juvenile court for sexual offenses.

But we currently have no law requiring the registration of juvenile sex offenders, even though this information would greatly assist the police and juvenile authorities in keeping our schools and our streets safe from dangerous sex offenders.

While we must maintain the confidentiality that is required by state law for young offenders, we need to require juvenile courts to maintain a registry of juvenile sex offenders.

State agencies would be required to share information.

TRANSPORTATION

A sound transportation infrastructure is crucial to Missouri's economic vitality and the safety of its motorists in a new century.

I, like many of you, am greatly disheartened by the financial insolvency of the 15-Year Plan.

Throughout my years of public service, I have been a strong advocate of a top quality transportation infrastructure for Missouri.

When the 15-Year Plan was under consideration in the legislature years ago, I came up here as Lieutenant Governor to lobby for its passage.

However, it is now clear that despite the good intentions of many people, the plan cannot be built with currently available revenues.

However, many of the projects in the 15-Year Plan remain crucial to Missouri's future.

And important new needs have emerged since the plan was originally drafted.

To protect and advance Missouri's economic health, we must find enough common ground to move forward in the development of a total transportation plan that has bipartisan support.

I fully recognize that we face major obstacles.

But we must keep working at it until we can achieve enough consensus to move forward.

And we must make real progress this year because delay will only cost more money, more lives, and more missed economic opportunities.

Among the more significant obstacles is the divisiveness over the regional allocation of transportation dollars.

The rural/urban split will continue to be a highly contentious issue--and an impediment to statewide progress--unless we can reach agreement on an allocation process that Missourians in all regions will view as fair.

The Highway and Transportation Commission has taken an important step toward addressing this matter.

It will soon establish a Rural/Urban Advisory Group to recommend changes that will increase public confidence in the way the Commission makes future rural/urban allocation decisions.

I urge all of you to lend your support to this important initiative.

STATE EMPLOYEES

During our administration, we have demanded much more of our state employees.

We have put a great deal of effort into eliminating government inefficiency in order to improve customer service.

But improved customer service in state government requires an experienced, dedicated, and productive workforce.

If we want high quality services, we must have high quality people providing those services.

So for my past six years as governor, we have taken steps to attract and retain the best state employees so we would not lose them to private industry.

This year is no exception.

For the fourth year in a row, I am recommending that our state employees receive marketplace salary increases.

While the percentage will vary depending on the salary relationship of the employee to the marketplace, most of our state employees will receive about a five percent increase.

As we continue to work to bring public sector salaries in line with the private sector, we should also work in other ways to place public employees on an equal footing with their private sector counterparts.

I hope this General Assembly will work to send me a bipartisan bill granting public employees the right to bargain collectively.

CONCLUSION

These are some of the major issues that I would like us to address this year.

And as we begin that work, I believe we can look to the every day heroes who have joined us today for inspiration.

Ashlee, Erika, and Laurie are heroes, not because of one single act of bravery.

But because they have found the courage to embrace goals that are bigger than any one person and the selflessness to work toward those goals every day of their lives.

Feeding sixty people day in and day out is not an easy task.

But Ashlee does it so that these children will have the nourishment they need to grow into strong adults.

Standing up against the peer pressure to smoke and working to convince others of the dangers of tobacco is difficult.

But Erika does it so that the teenagers in her community will be able to grow up to be healthy adults.

Teaching a class full of second graders every day and dealing with all their questions, problems, and enthusiasm is always challenging.

But Laurie is dedicated to helping them become productive, responsible adults.

Now is our time to be the heroes of our day--to embrace goals that are bigger than any one person, one party, or one branch of government.

Our state and our nation have just gone through another hard fought election campaign.

But that campaign is over, and the people have spoken.

Now the citizens of the State of Missouri expect us to work together on the issues that matter to them--good jobs, a better education and health care for their children, and a safe place to live.

This is not the time to speak of politics.

That time will come again, but it is not this day.

This is a time to do the people's business.

When I was elected governor, I made a commitment to the people of Missouri to do a good job on their behalf.

And that is what I intend to do.

I want to work with all of you in building on the tremendous accomplishments we have achieved in the past.

And so I ask that you join me in the spirit of bipartisan cooperation that has made those accomplishments possible.

Where there are questions, let us find answers.

Where there is emotion, let us find reason.

Where there are differences, let us find common ground.

May this sacred seat of government and the hallowed principles that shaped it, elevate our ideas and our conduct.

The people of the State of Missouri have entrusted us with their future.

The Joint Session was dissolved by Lieutenant Governor Wilson.

Speaker Gaw resumed the Chair.

RULE 2. Definitions

As used in these rules, unless the context requires otherwise, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings, and the use of masculine gender shall include the feminine.

(1) Censure - A sanction which recognizes the respondent's conduct constituted a legal or moral wrong, and which shall include punishment in the form of denying privileges of office, which recommendation is included as part of the committee's report and requires the presence of the respondent in the chamber during consideration and vote by the entire House on such resolution.

(2) Letter of Reproval - A sanction which expresses disapproval of conduct based on the appropriateness of such conduct by a legislator, regardless of whether the conduct constitutes a legal or moral wrong and is included as part of the committee's report.

RULE 3. Quorums

A quorum exists when a majority of the members of the Committee are present.

RULE 4. Form of Complaints

A. All complaints filed with the Speaker against a member of the House shall be made by a member. The complaints shall be confidential and shall be referred to the Committee on Ethics within ten (10) days and shall be in writing and under oath, setting forth in simple, concise and direct statements:

(1) The name and legal address of the member or members acting as complainant;

(2) The name of the member of the House alleged to have engaged in the commission of a crime, misconduct, willful neglect of duty, corruption in office or other acts constituting ethical misconduct. "Misconduct", means:

(a) Any conduct constituting a legal or moral wrong which materially impairs the member's ability to perform the duties of his office or substantially impairs public confidence in the General Assembly;

(b) Any conduct constituting a conflict of interest under chapter 105, RSMo;

(c) The intentional filing of a false complaint or the filing of a complaint in reckless disregard of the truth.

(3) The nature of the alleged crime, misconduct, neglect, corruption or other unethical act, including when applicable, the specific law, rule, regulation or ethical standard violated;

(4) The facts alleged to have given rise to the violation; and

(5) Where the facts are alleged upon the information and belief of the complainant, the complaint shall so state and set forth the basis for such information and belief.

B. All documents in the possession of the complainant that are relevant to and in support of the allegations shall be appended to the complaint.

RULE 5. Initial Examination of the Complaint by the Committee

A. Within thirty (30) days of the assignment of the complaint by the Speaker, the Committee shall determine if it is in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules, and whether on the face of the complaint, the allegations contained therein are within the jurisdiction of the Committee, and if so, whether the allegations merit proceeding to a preliminary hearing. The complainant shall not act as a member of the Committee at a hearing in which the complainant is likely to be called as a necessary witness. A respondent shall not act as a member of the Committee for purposes of his complaint.

B. Complaints determined not to be in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules shall be returned to the complainant with a general statement that it is not in compliance with the Rules of Procedure. The complaint may be resubmitted in the proper form.

C. Once a determination has been made that the complaint complies with Rule 4 of these rules, a majority of the Committee appointed shall vote by roll call to either:

(1) Defer action pending completion of any other administrative, disciplinary, commission, or judicial proceeding;

(2) Proceed to a preliminary hearing;

(3) Dismiss the complaint.

D. In determining whether or not to proceed the Committee shall consider the following:

(1) The credible evidence contained in the complaint or appended thereto of the commission of a crime, misconduct, willful neglect of duty, corruption in office, or other acts violating applicable ethical standards;

(2) Other administrative or disciplinary action by other interested bodies;

(3) Criminal investigation, Missouri Ethics Commission proceeding, or judicial proceedings, either civil or criminal; and

(4) Other relevant circumstances that would justify expediting, declining or deferring action by the Committee.

E. Complaints determined to be in compliance with Rule 4 of these Rules and accepted for a preliminary hearing shall be transmitted to the respondent with a copy of the Rules of Procedure and notice in writing that the respondent has twenty-one (21) calendar days to respond to the complaint either by way of answer or motion pursuant to Rule 6 of these Rules. The complainant shall also be notified, in writing, of the action of the Committee. Examination of the complaint and the determination of Rule 4.C. shall be conducted in a closed meeting.

RULE 6. Answers and Motions

A. If the Committee determines that the complaint merits proceeding to a preliminary hearing, the respondent shall have twenty-one (21) calendar days in which to respond to the complaint by way of answer or motion, unless this time period is waived by the respondent. Any answer or motion shall be in writing, signed by the respondent and his counsel, if he has one, and shall be limited to the following:

(1) An admission or denial under oath, of the allegations set forth in the complaint, including negative and affirmative defenses, and any other relevant information, including supporting evidence which the respondent may desire to submit;

(2) An objection to the jurisdiction of the Committee to investigate the complaint; or

(3) An objection to the participation of any member of the Committee in an investigation of the complaint on the grounds that the member cannot render an impartial and unbiased decision in the case. The majority of the members present shall rule on the objection to the participation of any member of the Committee. A temporary replacement shall be made to serve on the Committee on Ethics for all actions concerning a particular complaint for any member of the Committee who is prevented from acting on a complaint under these rules.

B. Any motion submitted pursuant to this rule is not in lieu of an answer and shall be accompanied by a memorandum of points and authorities. Answers or motions not submitted within the twenty-one (21) calendar-day-period shall not be considered by the Committee.

C. The Chairman of the Committee shall pass upon such motions as soon as practicable and notice of the decision shall be furnished to the respondent and the complainant. A motion to quash a subpoena shall be decided by the Chairman of the Committee.

D. Time limitations imposed by this Rule may be extended when, in the discretion of the Chairman, such extension would facilitate a fair and complete inquiry and may be shortened when the Chairman determines that there are special circumstances compelling expedition, and upon twenty-four (24) hours notice of said action to the respondent and the claimant.

E. In the event that a special counsel is retained by the Committee, the attorney-client privilege is applicable to the Committee and not to the House.

RULE 7. Preliminary Hearings

A. A preliminary hearing may be held to hear arguments based on the pleadings submitted in the case. The preliminary hearing shall be an open meeting. The committee shall provide the complainant and the respondent or counsel for the complainant and respondent an opportunity to present, orally or in writing, a statement, which shall be under oath or affirmation, regarding the allegations and any other relevant questions arising out of the pleadings. A complainant or respondent who is represented by counsel shall not be questioned in the absence of counsel unless an explicit waiver is obtained.

B. The committee shall require that testimony be given under oath or affirmation. The form of the oath or affirmation shall be: "Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that the testimony you will give before this committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?" The oath or affirmation shall be administered by the Chairman or Committee member designated by him to administer oaths. Members of the committee shall be give an opportunity to question the complainant and respondent or counsel for the complainant or respondent following the opening statements.

C. At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, a majority of the Committee shall vote by roll call to either:

- (1) Dismiss the complaint; or
- (2) Proceed by
  - (a) undertaking an investigative hearing; or
  - (b) deciding the case based upon the preliminary hearing.

A decision based upon a preliminary hearing shall require the consent of the respondent.

D. If the committee decides to make a summary decision of the case and the respondent accepts this disposition the committee may, by a majority vote, recommend one of the following sanctions:

- (a) Letter of reproof;
- (b) Reprimand; or
- (c) Censure.

RULE 8. Investigative Hearings

A. An investigative hearing may be held on the record to receive evidence upon which to base findings, conclusions, and recommendations, if any, to the House. The Committee may require, by subpoena or otherwise, or by subpoena duces tecum, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memorandums, papers and documents as it deems necessary. The Committee may obtain a court-issued subpoena in the event that any person refuses to obey the subpoena issued by the Committee.

B. Prior to setting a hearing date and issuing subpoenas for witnesses, the Committee shall resolve the scope and purpose of the hearings. A copy of this statement of scope and purpose shall be furnished to all witnesses. During the course of the hearings the Committee may expand or contract the scope in light of evidence received.

C. The order of the investigative hearing shall be as follows:

- (1) The Chairman shall open the hearing by stating the Committee's authority to conduct the investigation, the purpose of the investigation and its scope.
- (2) The complainant and the respondent or counsel for the complainant and respondent shall be permitted to make opening statements. Such opening statements shall not exceed fifteen minutes.
- (3) Testimony from witnesses and other evidence pertinent to the matter under investigation shall be received in the following order:
  - (a) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the complainant;
  - (b) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the respondent;
  - (c) Witnesses and other evidence offered by the Committee staff; and

(d) Rebuttal witnesses.

(4) The Chairman or his designee shall examine each witness. The Committee members may then question the witness. The respondent or his counsel may then cross-examine the witness. Redirect or recross examination may be permitted in the Chairman's discretion. With respect to witnesses offered by the respondent, a witness shall be examined first by the respondent or his counsel, if he has one, and then may be cross-examined by the complainant or his counsel, if he has one, and then may be cross-examined by the Chairman or his designee. Committee members may then question the witness. Redirect and recross examination may be permitted in the Chairman's discretion

D. Testimony of all witnesses shall be taken under oath. The form of the oath shall be: "Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony you will give before this committee in the matter now under consideration will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?" The oath shall be administered by the Chairman or Committee member designated by him to administer oaths.

RULE 9. Admissibility of Evidence

A. The object of the hearings shall be to ascertain the truth. Any evidence that is relevant and probative shall be admissible, unless privileged or unless the Constitution otherwise requires its exclusion. Objections going only to the weight that should be given to evidence will not justify its exclusion.

B. The Chairman or other member presiding shall rule upon any question of admissibility of testimony or evidence presented to the Committee. The Chairman or other member presiding may limit the presentation of repetitious evidence. Rulings shall be final unless reversed or modified by a majority vote of the Committee members present.

C. At an investigative hearing, the burden of proof is on the complainant with respect to each count to establish the facts alleged therein clearly and convincingly by the evidence that he introduces.

RULE 10. Witnesses

A. A subpoena to a witness shall be served sufficiently in advance of his scheduled appearance to allow him a reasonable period of time, as determined by the Committee, to prepare for the hearing and to employ counsel should he so desire.

B. Except as otherwise specifically authorized by the Chairman, no member of the Committee or staff shall make public the name of any witness subpoenaed by the Committee before his scheduled appearance.

C. Witnesses at investigative hearings may be accompanied by their counsel for the purpose of advising them concerning their constitutional rights and to raise objections to procedures or to the admissibility of testimony and evidence. Counsel for a witness other than the respondent shall not be permitted to engage in oral argument with the Committee. After a witness has testified, his counsel may submit to the Committee, in writing, any questions he wishes propounded to his client and any request for additional witnesses or other evidence. Such request may be granted in the discretion of the Committee.

D. The respondent may apply to the Committee for the issuance of subpoenas for the appearance of witnesses or the production of documents on his behalf. The application shall be granted upon good cause shown by the respondent that the proposed testimony or evidence is relevant and not otherwise available. The application shall be denied if not made at a reasonable time or if the testimony or evidence would be merely cumulative.

E. The respondent is entitled to present witnesses in his behalf. However, the chairman may limit such testimony when, in his discretion, he finds the testimony is repetitious or cumulative.

F. Each witness subpoenaed by the committee shall be reimbursed for those reasonable expenses approved by the Committee.

G. Each witness shall be furnished a printed copy of the Rules of Procedure and the pertinent provisions of the Rules of the House applicable to the rights of witnesses.

H. Within ten (10) calendar days before the scheduled investigative hearing, the Chairman shall notify the respondent, in writing, of the witnesses that are to appear before the Committee. Within five (5) calendar days before the scheduled investigative hearing, the respondent shall notify the Committee, in writing, of the witnesses that are to appear in his behalf. Additional witnesses may be brought before the Committee, in the discretion of the Chairman or other member presiding and upon good cause, if their whereabouts or existence were unknown to the respondent at the time for submission of the witness list to Committee.

RULE 11. Findings, Conclusions and Recommendations

A. At the completion of the preliminary hearing or investigative hearings, the Committee, by a majority vote of its members, shall, within forty-five (45) days, adopt a report stating its findings and conclusions on the complaint. The report shall be filed with the Chief Clerk of the House and shall be printed in the House Journal. In the event the Committee finds that the complaint is not well-founded, the report shall so state, and shall include a copy of a Letter of Reproval if the Committee authorized such sanction. In the event the Committee finds that the complaint is well-founded, the report shall state the Committee's recommendation in a resolution appended thereto.

B. The resolution shall state the Committee's findings and conclusions on each allegation in the complaint with the recommendation that the House:

(1) Expel the member as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution;

(2) Punish the member as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Missouri Constitution, by reprimand on the adoption of the resolution, or by censure by the Speaker in open session; or

(3) Take no further action, stating the reasons therefor.

RULE 12. Matters not covered in these Rules of Procedure

The Rules of Procedure of the United States House of Representatives Committee on Standards of Official Conduct of the 103rd Congress shall be taken as guidelines in deciding questions, issues, and other matters not otherwise provided for in these Rules of Procedure, except that the Rules of the Missouri House of Representatives governing the party representation on committees shall apply to this Committee.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

ELEVENTH DAY, Monday, January 25, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by the Reverend Dr. Stephen Buchholz, Central United Church of Christ.

Holy God, after a weekend of recess, this body is reassembled again to consider the important issues before them for the greater good of the people of Missouri. Be that source of Divine presence, guidance, inspiration, and strength, for these individuals who come from many and varied communities, backgrounds, and home environments to exercise their established elected authority in this legislative process. Enable them always to see their responsibility as that entrusted to them for the greatest good of all citizens, and not just for special interest or for party gain. Bless them in the sacred trust they hold by merit of their office, and in all they do, as they begin another week for the people they represent. For this we pray in honor of your holy presence. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWELFTH DAY, Tuesday, January 26, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Dr. Stephen Buchholz.

Lord God, as this body starts another full day of work, we pause at this beginning point to open our hearts to the promptings of Your spirit. There are so many issues, so many angles and fine points that must be considered to reach a decision - to form an opinion - that at times this work becomes overwhelming. So we ask this day that You will gently attend to these Representatives in ways that will bring insight in the midst of their conscientious and sincere desire to do what is right.

We also acknowledge the eyes of the world will be focused upon our great State for the next day and a half with the Papal visit. We are honored, O God, for the presence of the Pope and for the visit from our President today and pray that this historic experience will be a blessing for the people of our State. Irregardless of our beliefs, or faith persuasions, the Pope does remind all of us of Spirituality and Religion and for that we are grateful and pray his presence will positively influence us in our work today as our thoughts are turned to You, O Creator God: in whose name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Denny Niebaum, Ashley Myers, Gabe Myers, Jordan Godsell, Chris Summers, Rachel Williamson, Mack Grayson Bartle and Elizabeth Kay Bartle.

The Journal of the eleventh day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTEENTH DAY, Wednesday, January 27, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Dr. Stephen Buchholz.

Lord, how surprising are Your ways as you fashion the movement of life and creation. Today we awakened from our nights rest to be greeted with Spring like temperatures which were down right balmy - all that serves as a hint of things to come. And so are the ways of life, just when we think we are locked in the throgs of bitter chill, deadlock, and darkness, with no hope for change or consensus; Your presence mysteriously intervenes, often unexpectedly; then transformation occurs and we are moved forward in the streams of progress and hope. Your ways are life giving and life enhancing, help us always to keep that truth in the forefront of our minds especially in the times when we feel bogged down and overwhelmed. Keep each day of our lives infused with hope, patience and endurance - write these spiritual realities upon the hearts of these Legislators as they face the issues before them, legislatively and personally.

May Your blessing rest upon this Body today and may each Representative be strengthened in ways most fitting to their needs. For we acknowledge Your creative and attentive ways even as we pray in Your Holy name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Letitia Harmon and Deanna Harmon.

The Journal of the twelfth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

FOURTEENTH DAY, Thursday, January 28, 1999

Representative Scheve in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Dr. Stephen Buchholz.

Life sustaining God, as the week winds down today for these elected servants, it has been a historic few days for our great state of Missouri, with the visit of both political and spiritual dignitaries in St. Louis. Regardless of the issues before this body we trust that each of these Representatives and the populous at-large had to be at least subtly effected spiritually by the impact of this visit. And in a time when secularism seems to increase its grip upon all of us - how refreshing to be reminded of the spiritual, indeed the sacred dimensions of life - even as we do each morning here in these opening moments. Something warmly happens to us each time we draw in close spiritual communion with You, O Holy One, and for this we are grateful.

Now, allow that spiritual presence to settle upon each one here today, bless, renew and strengthen them, as they form their own perspective and perceptions seek to do what is right for the people of our great state. May fruit be borne as a result of what is accomplished here today and throughout this year's session of this General Assembly. For it is in Your name, O Eternal One, that we offer our prayer. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as a Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Erin Kaufman.

The Journal of the thirteenth day was approved as corrected.

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

FIFTEENTH DAY, Monday, February 1, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Pat Kelley.

In these halls we hear so many opinions about what we need. Quality education, health care, new highways, funding for a local project, a level playing field, justice, fairness. If we are honest we know that what we need the most is You, Oh God. We need Your love, Your compassion, Your wisdom and Your justice, and You have shown us how to have all of these. Oh Lord, help us to follow the way, to fear the truth and to see the light, that leads us to You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fourteenth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

SIXTEENTH DAY, Tuesday, February 2, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Bill Ransdall.

First, I tell you to pray for all people, asking God for what they need and being thankful to Him. Pray for rulers and for all who have authority so that we can have quiet and peaceful lives full of worship and respect for God. (1 Timothy 2:1-2)

O God our heavenly Father, as we begin this day of work, give us wisdom to see the potential in all humanity, to perceive hope where none was possible, to inspire those who are depressed, to strengthen the fallen, to encourage the weak...to see in all the potential of goodness, and to lend aid to all in need of our care; Give us ears to hear, and hearts of discernment. This we ask in Your blessed name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

SEVENTEENTH DAY, Wednesday, February 3, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Gracia Backer.

Our most gracious heavenly Father, this is indeed the day You have made and we ask Your help in rejoicing in it as we do our work for the citizens of this state.

Thank You for the beautiful sunshine in the middle of Winter, the pleasant greetings from our colleagues in the middle of committee meetings and the patience our families still have with us in the middle of session. Sometimes, Lord, the middle is a good place to be.

We ask, also, Lord, for Your hand to lay peace upon this world. But let each of us realize that peace doesn't begin with the person sitting next to us or on the other side of the aisle or in another country. Peace must begin in our own hearts each morning.

The blessings You bestow upon us each day are beyond comprehension, but we take time this morning to say a simple thank you for giving us the strength to make it through the day.

We thank You for what You have done for us and what You are going to do for us as Your children. And most importantly, Lord, we thank You for Your patience with us each moment of the day. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixteenth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

EIGHTEENTH DAY, Thursday, February 4, 1999

Prayer by Representative Matt Boatright.

Dear Lord, I just want to thank You and praise You for this day - another day of life for which we are grateful. I thank You too for Your instructions for us in Proverbs, Chapter 2 -- Lord, You tell us that if we will receive Your sayings and treasure them in our hearts and cry out for discernment that You will give us wisdom and understanding. Lord, we thank You for the opportunity that You have given each of us in governing. We ask that You would help us apply these principals, from proverbs in our life, that we would be effective in this task. It is in Your name that we praise and thank You, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Jelena Aleksic, Shawn Casey, Sparkle Elliot and Mark Redecker.

House Resolution No. 113

BE IT RESOLVED, that Rule 28(22) of the Rules of the House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, be amended to read as follows:

(22) Fiscal Review (a) The Committee on Fiscal Review shall consider any bill, except appropriations bills, which, as determined by a duly issued fiscal note, requires net additional expenditure of state money in excess of $100,000 or which reduces net state revenue by more than $100,000 in any of the four fiscal years immediately following the effective date of the bill. Such bills shall be referred to the Committee by the Speaker as follows:

(1) Any such House bill ordered perfected and printed, prior to its being placed upon the calendar for third reading and final passage;

(2) Any such House bill reported to the House with Senate amendments or Senate substitute, prior to its being taken up by the House to be truly agreed and finally passed;

(3) Any such Senate bill reported from House committee, prior to its being taken up by the House for third reading and final passage; and

(4) Any such House or Senate bill taken from any committee pursuant to the Constitution and House Rule 36 or otherwise taken from committee by action of the House, prior to its being taken up by the House for third reading and final passage.

(b) On the request of any member and without regard to the existence or content of a fiscal note on the bill as being considered, the Speaker shall, in his or her discretion, either refer any of the following bills to the committee on Fiscal Review or place the question of such referral before the House, in which a simple majority shall sustain the question:

(1) Any House bill ordered perfected and printed that has not previously been reviewed by the Committee, prior to its sponsor being recognized to close on third reading and final passage;

(2) Any Senate bill not previously reviewed by the Committee which is so amended as to make it reasonable to suppose that as amended it will increase net expenditure of state money or reduce net state revenue by a total of more than $100,000, prior to its sponsor being recognized to close on third reading and final passage;

(3) Any Senate bill previously reviewed by the Committee which is so amended as to make it reasonable to suppose that as amended it will increase net expenditure of state money or reduce net state revenue by in excess of an additional $100,000 over the net expenditure or net revenue reduction of the bill as previously reviewed by the Committee, prior to its sponsor being recognized to close on third reading and final passage; and

(4) Any House or Senate bill as recommended by a conference committee report in which the conferees have been granted permission to exceed the differences and which it is reasonable to suppose that as recommended it will increase net state expenditure or reduce net state revenue by in excess of an additional $100,000 over the net expenditure or net revenue reduction of the bill as previously reviewed by the Committee, prior to its sponsor being recognized to close on adoption of the conference committee report.

(c) In considering any bill referred to it for fiscal consideration, the Committee on Fiscal Review shall grant a hearing in which only the primary sponsor or, in the case of a Senate bill, the floor handler, shall testify. The Committee may, with the consent of the sponsor or floor handler, amend an effective date onto any bill referred to the Committee.

(d) For the purpose of this rule, "net" is defined as the sum of revenues and expenditures, after reductions and increases brought about by a bill have been calculated.

(e) The Committee on Fiscal Review shall report on any other bills, including those with unknown fiscal notes, measures or questions referred to it by the Speaker.

[(a) The Committee on Fiscal Review shall consider any bill which requires net additional expenditure of state money in excess of $100,000 or which reduces net state revenue by more than $100,000 in any of the four fiscal years immediately following the effective date of the bill. Any such House bill, after having been perfected and ordered printed by the House shall be referred to the Committee on Fiscal Review for its consideration prior to the bill's submission to the House for third reading and final passage. Any Senate or House bill amended so as to increase net expenditures or reduce net revenues shall, upon timely motion, be re-referred to the Committee on Fiscal Review. The primary sponsor or, in the case of a Senate bill, the floor handler, of a bill referred to the Committee on Fiscal Review shall be entitled to a hearing on the bill but such hearing shall be limited to the reception of testimony by the primary sponsor or floor handler, as the case may be, in person and none other. For the purpose of this rule, "net" is defined as the sum of revenues and expenditures, after reductions and increases brought about by a bill have been calculated. The Committee on Fiscal Review may, with the consent of the House Sponsor or Floor Handler, amend an effective date onto any bill referred to the Committee.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWENTIETH DAY, Tuesday, February 9, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Gracia Backer.

Our most gracious Heavenly Father, thank You for giving us another beautiful spring day in the middle of winter. How easy it is to be grateful when the sun is shining, our family is loving and our bodies are healthy. We are happy when things are good.

We ask today, Lord, that You give us strength, courage and perseverance when it's stormy, our families are in turmoil and we are sick in body and mind. Let us be mindful that although things may not seem good at the time, You will always be at our side. Thank You for never giving up on us even though we sometimes give up on You because things are not going our way.

Surprisingly enough, Lord, I became quite angry with my son this weekend and was so hurt that he betrayed my trust. And then it hit me quite suddenly that You experience this from all Your children each day. I ask this morning that we be as forgiving with our children, family and friends as You are each moment with us.

We pray Your healing hand is placed upon our colleague, the lady from St. Louis County, Secrest district, and that she is returned to our midst very soon. Give her comfort and strength knowing You are with her.

As always, thank You for Your blessings and for the opportunity each of us has been given to serve our fellow men and women. Bless our families as we are away and give us safety when we return home this week. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Nathan Fehlbaum, Emily Thal, Laura Thal, Aaron Hermann, Caleb Hermann, Luke Hermann, Drew Hermann, Suzy Gerler, Ricky Hughes, Amanda Mealer and Taban Salem.

The Journal of the nineteenth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 10.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10

WHEREAS, the current financial crises in Asia, Russia and other regions have involved massive depreciation in the currencies of several key steel-producing and steel-consuming countries and a collapse in the domestic demand for steel in those countries; and

WHEREAS, these crises have generated and will continue to generate surges in United States imports of steel, both from the countries whose currencies have depreciated in the crisis and from steel producing countries that are no longer able to export steel to the countries in economic crisis; and

WHEREAS, foreign government trade restrictions and private restraints of trade distort international trade and investment patterns and result in burdens on United States commerce, including absorption of a disproportionate share of diverted steel trade, which ultimately has a detrimental effect on this state's economy; and

WHEREAS, there is a well recognized need for improvements in the enforcement of United States trade laws to provide an effective response to these situations;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Ninetieth General Assembly, the House of Representatives concurring therein, requests the President of the United States to commence immediate study to determine the entry into the customs territory of the United States of all steel products that are the product of or are manufactured in Australia, China, South Africa, Ukraine, Indonesia, India, Japan, Russia, South Korea or Brazil, to determine whether the governments of those countries are abiding by the spirit and letter of international trade agreements with respect to imports of steel products into the United States, and take all actions necessary to enforce applicable trade agreements and laws of the United States pertaining to steel imports; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the General Assembly of the State of Missouri requests the President of the United States to immediately impose a one-year ban on imports of all steel products that are the product of or are manufactured in Australia, China, South Africa, Ukraine, Indonesia, India, Japan, Russia, South Korea or Brazil, if the President finds that the governments of those countries are not abiding by the spirit and letter of international trade agreements with respect to imports of steel products into the United States; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the General Assembly of the State of Missouri requests the President of the United States to establish a task force within the executive branch to closely monitor imports of steel products to the United States from other countries to determine whether international trade agreements are being violated; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to provide properly inscribed copies of this resolution to Bill Clinton, President of the United States.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWENTY- FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, February 10, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers, St. Peters Church.

Lord, God, we stand always within the range of your sight. Conscious of our weaknesses and wrongs, we stand humbly before You.

Today, enlighten us as we take up the affairs of the state. Give us light and strength to know Your will, to make it our own, and to live it in our lives. Guide us by Your wisdom, support us by Your power, for You are God, the Creator, and we are the creature.

You desire justice for all. Enable us to uphold the rights of others; do not allow us to be misled by ignorance or corrupted by fear or favor. Unite us to Yourself in the bond of integrity, and keep us faithful to all that is true.

As we work together this day, may we temper justice with concern for the needy, so that all our decisions may be pleasing to You, and earn the reward promised to good and faithful servants. You are the one God, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the twentieth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

"304.010. 1. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Expressway", a divided highway of at least ten miles in length with four or more lanes which is not part of the federal interstate system of highways which has crossovers or accesses from streets, roads or other highways at the same grade level as such divided highway;

(2) "Freeway", a limited access divided highway of at least ten miles in length with four or more lanes which is not part of the federal interstate system of highways which does not have any crossovers or accesses from streets, roads or other highways at the same grade level as such divided highway within such ten miles of divided highway;

(3) "Rural interstate", that part of the federal interstate highway system that is not located in an urban area;

(4) "Urbanized area", an area of fifty thousand population at a density at or greater than one thousand persons per square mile.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the uniform maximum speed limits are and no vehicle shall be operated in excess of the speed limits established pursuant to this section:

(1) Upon the rural interstates and freeways of this state, seventy miles per hour;

(2) Upon the rural expressways of this state, sixty-five miles per hour;

(3) Upon the interstate highways, freeways or expressways within the urbanized areas of this state, sixty miles per hour;

(4) All other roads and highways in this state not located in an urbanized area and not provided for in subdivisions (1) to (3) of this subsection, sixty miles per hour;

(5) All other roads provided for in subdivision (4) of this subsection shall not include any state two-lane road which is identified by letter. Such lettered roads shall not exceed fifty-five miles per hour unless set at a higher speed as established by the department of transportation, except that no speed limit shall be set higher than sixty miles per hour;

(6) For the purposes of enforcing the speed limit laws of this state, it is a rebuttable presumption that the posted speed limit is the legal speed limit.

3. On any state road or highway where the speed limit is not set pursuant to a local ordinance, the highways and transportation commission may set a speed limit higher or lower than the uniform maximum speed limit provided in subsection 2 of this section, if a higher or lower speed limit is recommended by the department of transportation. The department of public safety, where it believes for safety reasons, or to expedite the flow of traffic a higher or lower speed limit is warranted, may request the department of transportation to raise or lower such speed limit, except that no speed limit shall be set higher than seventy miles per hour.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 304.120 or any other provision of law to the contrary, cities, towns and villages may regulate the speed of vehicles on state roads and highways within such cities', towns' or villages' corporate limits by ordinance with the approval of the state highways and transportation commission. Any reduction of speed in cities, towns or villages shall be designed to expedite the flow of traffic on such state roads and highways to the extent consistent with public safety. The commission may declare any ordinance void if it finds that such ordinance is:

(1) Not primarily designed to expedite traffic flow; and

(2) Primarily designed to produce revenue for the city, town or village which enacted such ordinance.

If an ordinance is declared void, the city, town or village shall have any future proposed ordinance approved by the highways and transportation commission before such ordinance may take effect.

5. The county commission of any county of the second, third or fourth classification may set the speed limit or the weight limit or both the speed limit and the weight limit on roads or bridges on any county, township or road district road in the county and, with the approval of the state highways and transportation commission, on any state road or highway not within the limits of any incorporated city, town or village, lower than the uniform maximum speed limit as provided in subsection 2 of this section where the condition of the road or the nature of the area requires a lower speed. The commission shall send copies of any order establishing a speed limit or weight limit on roads and bridges on a county, township or road district road in the county to the chief engineer of the state department of transportation, the superintendent of the state highway patrol and to any township or road district maintaining roads in the county. After the roads have been properly marked by signs indicating the speed limits and weight limits set by the county commission, the speed limits and weight limits shall be of the same effect as the speed limits provided for in subsection 1 of this section and shall be enforced by the state highway patrol and the county sheriff as if such speed limits and weight limits were established by state law.

6. All road signs indicating speed limits or weight limits shall be uniform in size, shape, lettering and coloring and shall conform to standards established by the department of transportation.

7. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to alter any speed limit set below fifty-five miles per hour by any ordinance of any county, city, town or village of the state adopted before March 13, 1996.

8. The speed limits established pursuant to this section shall not apply to the operation of any emergency vehicle as defined in section 304.022.

9. A violation of the provisions of this section shall not be construed to relieve the parties in any civil action on any claim or counterclaim from the burden of proving negligence or contributory negligence as the proximate cause of any accident or as the defense to a negligence action.

10. Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a class C misdemeanor[, unless such]; except that any person [was] exceeding the posted speed limit by twenty miles per hour or more [then it] is guilty of a class B misdemeanor and any person operating a commercial motor vehicle licensed for a gross weight of fifty-four thousand pounds or more in excess of seventy-five miles per hour upon any section of a road or highway with a posted or designated speed limit of seventy miles per hour is guilty of a class A misdemeanor and shall be fined one thousand dollars."; and

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWENTY-SECOND DAY, Thursday, February 11, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Lord, our God, You placed Your word about praying for government leaders on the lips of the apostle Paul.

"First of all, then, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity." (1 Timothy 2:1-2)

Lord, we pray for these government leaders, the Missouri House of Representatives. Strengthen them to be examples of righteousness to our society. Grant them the blessing of experiencing the wisdom of the Holy Spirit in their deliberations today.

Yes, Lord, may everything we do begin with Your inspiration and continue with Your help, that all our work of this day may begin in You, and by You be happily completed.

You are God, our divine Father, who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Curtis Evans, Rachel Evans, Sarah Evans and Harold Evans.

The Journal of the twenty-first day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

RESOLUTIONS

House Resolution No. 182

WHEREAS, Laura Burkhardt Moeller of Jefferson City began her service to the Missouri House of Representatives in 1975 as a diligent session employee in the Perfecting Office, where she quickly proved herself to be invaluable before shifting her focus for a year with the Secretary of State's Office and then returning to the House Perfecting Office in 1977 as the night-shift supervisor responsible for training session employees and readying the House Journal and introduced bills for publishing; and

WHEREAS, after nearly a decade of exemplary leadership, Laura Moeller authored an impressive proposal which reconfigured existing resources to create the office of House Graphics which, with Laura Moeller as its coordinator, produced individualized, flexible "formula" publications such as newsletters, surveys, and directories for all 163 Representatives and which under her direction implemented direct-mail methods that saved more than $100,000 in taxpayer-funded postage annually; and

WHEREAS, in 1996 the consolidation of House Graphics and Perfecting resulted in Laura Moeller accepting the newly formed position of Publications Supervisor with oversight of two shifts to accurately complete the prepress preparation of journals; three million constituent, direct-mail publications a year; and a wide variety of legislative bills; and

WHEREAS, throughout all of her professional and civic-minded volunteer endeavors which include service as Director and Membership Chair of the Capital City Council on the Arts, KidZarT '97 Chairman, Director and Newsletter Editor of the Cole County Historical Society, member of Jefferson City's City Council and Task Force on Human Relations, Director of Jefferson City Day Care Center, and Co-founder and President of Friends-of-Children, Laura Moeller has enjoyed the loving support and encouragement of her extended family which includes her children Ryan and Chelsea Moeller, her mother Alice and late father Alfred Burkhardt, and siblings Dan and Marilyn Burkhardt:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninetieth General Assembly, join unanimously to commend Laura Moeller for her many professional achievements down through the years and to express appreciation for her competent service to this body as a hardworking, highly creative, and utterly dependable employee; and

House Resolution No. 158 was taken up by Representative Hosmer and read.

House Resolution No. 158

WHEREAS, it is with tremendous concern that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to acknowledge the grave danger of cardiac arrest and the role it plays in taking the lives of countless citizens across this state; and

WHEREAS, one of the leading causes of death throughout the United States, cardiac arrest claims an estimated 350,000 lives each year and is usually caused by an electrical malfunction of the heart called ventricular fibrillation; and

WHEREAS, difficult to predict, cardiac arrest strikes men and women, both young and old, with symptoms that can include immediate loss of consciousness and death within a matter of minutes without prompt medical intervention; and

WHEREAS, defibrillation stops ventricular fibrillation with an electrical pulse that allows a normal heart rhythm to resume and is highly effective when administered within the first few minutes following sudden cardiac arrest; and

WHEREAS, The American Heart Association estimates that as many as 100,000 deaths could be prevented each year through the widespread deployment of defibrillators; and

WHEREAS, during the 1996 and 1998 Legislative Sessions, the Missouri General Assembly passed legislation that would enable first responders and other properly qualified persons to operate automated defibrillators; and

WHEREAS, Ken Ordiway of Kimberling City became the first life clinically saved due to the passage of this legislation; and

WHEREAS, Heartstream, a manufacturer of Automated External Defibrillators (AEDs), has earned the praise and respect of all Missourians for its generous donation of an AED to the Missouri House of Representatives and for the intense training of the Capitol Police in the proper use of this device:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninetieth General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our most sincere appreciation to Heartstream for its efforts in reducing the risk of death from cardiac arrest in Missouri and to The American Heart Association, the Missouri State Medical Association, and the State Capitol Police for their concerted endeavors to support this important cause; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Heartstream.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Commerce, to which was referred HCR 9, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

WHEREAS, the current financial crises in Asia, Russia and other regions have involved massive depreciation in the currencies of several key steel-producing and steel-consuming countries and a collapse in the domestic demand for steel in those countries; and

WHEREAS, these crises have generated and will continue to generate surges in United States imports of steel, both from the countries whose currencies have depreciated in the crisis and from steel-producing countries that are no longer able to export steel to the countries in economic crisis; and

WHEREAS, foreign government trade restrictions and private restraints of trade distort international trade and investment patterns and result in burdens on United States commerce, including absorption of a disproportionate share of diverted steel trade, which ultimately has a detrimental effect on this state's economy; and

WHEREAS, there is a well-recognized need for improvements in the enforcement of United States trade laws to provide an effective response to these situations:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby request the President of the United States to commence an immediate study to determine the entry into the customs territory of the United States of all steel products that are the products of, or are manufactured in, Australia, China, South Africa, Ukraine, Indonesia, India, Japan, Russia, South Korea or Brazil, to determine whether the governments of those countries are abiding by the spirit and letter of international trade agreements with respect to imports of steel products into the United States, and take all actions necessary to enforce applicable trade agreements and laws of the United States pertaining to steel imports; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri Ninetieth General Assembly, First Regular Session, request the President of the United States to immediately impose a one-year ban on imports of all steel products that are the product of, or are manufactured in, Australia, China, South Africa, Ukraine, Indonesia, India, Japan, Russia, South Korea or Brazil, if the President finds that the governments of those countries are not abiding by the spirit and letter of international trade agreements with respect to imports of steel products in the United States; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri Ninetieth General Assembly, First Regular Session, request the President of the United States to establish a task force within the executive branch to closely monitor imports of steel products to the United States from other countries to determine whether international trade agreements are being violated; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States and to the members of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWENTY-THIRD DAY, Monday, February 15, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Carson Ross.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy precious name. It is with bowed heads and humble hearts we approach thy throne of grace and mercy. Thanking You for the many blessings that You bestow upon us each and everyday. Father, many times we take these blessings for granted. Forgive us, Lord, when we fail to thank You.

At this time we ask Your divine intervention on behalf of those with special needs today for You know who they are and what those needs are. I offer a special request on behalf of our colleague and my good friend, Representative Fletcher Daniels, as he goes into the hospital for tests tomorrow. Lord, take him into Your protective care, as only You can.

Bless our families back home in our absence and our travel to and from this place of public service for the people of Missouri.

I ask these and all blessings in the name of Your son, and our savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as a Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Megan Milford.

The Journal of the twenty-second day was approved as corrected.

No rule or [regulation promulgated pursuant to this section shall become effective until approved by the joint committee on administrative rules] portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo. No two owners shall be issued identical plates. An owner shall make a new application [and pay a new fee] each year he or she desires to obtain [or retain] special personalized license plates, but shall not be required to pay a new fee each year in addition to the regular registration fees if he or she desires to retain special license plates; however, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 8 of section 301.130 to the contrary, the director shall allow the special personalized license plates to be replaced with new plates every three years [without any] with an additional charge of fifteen dollars, above the [fee established in this section] regular registration fees, to the renewal applicant. Any person currently in possession of an approved personalized license plate shall have first priority on that particular plate for each of the following years that timely and appropriate application is made.

2. No personalized license plates shall be issued containing any letters, numbers or combination of letters and numbers which are obscene, profane, inflammatory or contrary to public policy. The director may recall any personalized license plates, including those issued prior to August 28, 1992, if [he] the director determines that the plates are obscene, profane, inflammatory or contrary to public policy. Where the director recalls such plates [under] pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, [he] the director shall reissue personalized license plates to the owner of the motor vehicle for which they were issued at no charge, if the new plates proposed by the owner of the motor vehicle meet the standards established [under] pursuant to this section. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be interpreted to prohibit the use of license plates, which are no longer valid for registration purposes, as collector's items or for decorative purposes.

3. The director may also establish categories of specialized personalized license plates from which license plates may be issued. Any such person that desires a special personalized license plate from any such category shall pay the same additional fee and make the same kind of application as that required by subsection 1 of this section, and the director shall issue such plates in the same manner as other special personalized license plates are issued.

4. The director of revenue shall issue to residents of the state of Missouri who hold an unrevoked and unexpired official amateur radio license issued by the Federal Communications Commission, upon application and upon payment of the additional fee specified in subsection 1 of this section, special personalized license plates bearing the official amateur radio call letters assigned by the Federal Communications Commission to the applicant. The application shall be accompanied by an affidavit stating that the applicant has an unrevoked and unexpired amateur radio license issued by the Federal Communications Commission and the official radio call letters assigned by the Federal Communications Commission to the applicant.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, any business listed in subsection 1 of section 301.570 that repossesses motor vehicles or trailers and sells or otherwise disposes of them shall be issued a placard displaying the word "Repossessed", provided such business pays the fees presently required of a manufacturer, distributor, or dealer in section 301.560. Such placard shall bear a number and shall be in such form as the director of revenue shall determine, and shall be only used for demonstrations when displayed substantially as provided for number plates on the rear of the motor vehicle or trailer.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY, Wednesday, February 17, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Kate Hollingsworth.

Did you hear the birds this morning, simple doves coo? Did you see the blue sky and the wispy clouds? How about the warming sunshine on your face? Did you see the cheerful faces of children at a bus stop? Did you feel...really feel... the crisp, cool air upon your skin?

The pace and intensity of our work can often deter our senses from the simple things. It is appropriate that today, Ash Wednesday, we reflect upon Your love. Heavenly Father, as we deliberate upon issues which make a difference in the lives of Missourians, we appreciate the gentle and simple things You provide.

We ask that Your gentle hand and sweet love be with those in need, those who are grieving loss. In particular, we ask for Your special blessing for our colleague, Rodger Fitzwater, whose father passed away this morning unexpectedly. Our prayers and thoughts are with Rodger, his mother and his brother, Phillip. We ask Your special comfort upon them as they return their loved one to Your care. Be also with Speaker Pro Tem Kreider and his mother during her hospitalization. In Your name, we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Natalie Wilson, Erica Wilson, Valerie Wilson, Mary Grace Bruntrager, Claire Bruntrager and Ellen Bruntrager.

The Journal of the twenty-fourth day was approved as corrected.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY, Thursday, February 18, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Randall Relford.

Our Gracious God, we give thanks for the gift of another day. The majestic power of Your creative hand is visible in every aspect of each person present in this great hall. With great diversity of character, interest and personal experience, we come together seeking to find avenues of oneness in the midst of myriads of deserts of challenge, present in governing our vast and fragmented culture. Grant, O Lord, the sustenance of Your spirit whereby we will make straight in the desert a highway of cooperation that maintains the dignity of Your creation and thusly promoting the general welfare of the people.

May our deliberations this day be conducted within the bounds of Your spirit of compassion for all, as we are mindful of this the second day of life for a small child, left to fend for itself on the steps of Cameron Community Hospital. There Your spirit nurtured this child through the presence of a mother cat till we were awakened to our senses. O Lord, move our conscience so that we may assist our citizens to accept personal responsibility for their life choices in a manner in which no child will ever be left out in the cold again.

This we humbly request, O God of the universe. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Flat Stanley, Katie Wilkerson, Laura Daily, Alexandra Kuxhaus, Mariah Vincent, Olivia Amick, Tyler Besaw, Kyle Besaw, David Holt, Jessica Holt, Kenny Marcher and Sam Negus.

The Journal of the twenty-fifth day was approved as corrected.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY, Monday, February 22, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Bill Ransdall.

O Lord, open my eyes that I may see the needs of others; open my ears that I may hear their cries; open my heart so that they need not be without strength, let me not be afraid to defend the weak because of the anger of the strong nor afraid to defend the poor because of the anger of the rich. Show me where love and hope and faith are needed, and use me to bring them to those places. And so open my eyes and my ears, that I may this coming day be able to do some work of peace for thee. Amen.

Please remember the Patrick Burch family in your prayers. Patrick was a long time lobbyist for the blind, he and his wife Judy, are mourning the passing of their daughter, Krystal Burch, this past week.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Laura Harter, Jimmy Harter, Sarah Harter and Jason Bromley.

The Journal of the twenty-sixth day was approved as corrected.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY, Tuesday, February 23, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Charlie Shields.

Dear Lord, thank You for the opportunity to come together today in this great deliberative body to do the people's work. As we go forward in our work today, continue to remind us of how we came to be here and why we seek to serve. The halls of this great building are filled with people who will gladly tell us how important we are. As the session goes on, we even start to believe them. Lord, continue to remind us that the most important role we fill is not that of legislator, but as husband, wife, father, mother and grandparent. Lord, remind us that we are only important when we are doing Your work on behalf of those back home we serve. We ask that You, Lord, keep us ever humble in a place where humility becomes rarer as the days of session go on. We ask that, with Your help, each day in Your name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: John Southard, Josh Hedrick, Ryan Harlow, Isaac Allen, Juston Volker, Jerrod Sadler, Rachel Abdoler, Nick Monaco, Aaron Dicket, Caleb Johnson, Liam Sumnicht, Jason Bromley, Jessica Bromley, Melissa Bromley and Kayla Heinicke.

The Journal of the twenty-seventh day was approved as corrected.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, Wednesday, February 24, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Bonnie Sue Cooper.

God of Grace and Understanding,

Someone once stated, "Blessed are those who fulfill the positions they occupy." We occupy some very important positions and the stakes are high along with the expectations. Yet, for some, it would just be enough to be elected, to fill a chair on the floor of the chamber, to occupy an office in the state capitol, to chair a committee, introduce a bill, just enough to get re-elected.

We are here to lead. Our goal should not be to do just enough to get re-elected, but to fulfill the position that is occupied with strength and courage and vision. Without apology and without recognition we continue to do our best knowing the office to be filled is always more important than the person filling it.

Father, in your scriptures You tell us 365 times - "Fear Not." You give us a Fear Not for every day of the year. Help us Father, to Fear Not so we may lead with courage and strength.

Privileged to serve, we move on toward our goals with You as our guide. Amen.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Stacey Zylka, Erin Maille, Stacey M. Blunt, Holly Hedemann, Amy Landon, Claire Winner, Russell Asher, Kari Aston, Jodi Beers, Jessica Bonkowski, Jasie Brakefield, Albert Cox, Beth Dilg, Amy Edgar, Sarah Garrison, Danny W. Gladden II, Matt Hammonds, Robbie Harris, David Howald, Amber Mayberry, Jenna Parrett, Tiffany Pratt, Leah Reed, Chris Sarles, Ray Scott, Alisha Tyree, Lindsay Verble, Lacy West, Chris Young, Jason Young, John Buckner, Christina Buckner, Jake Buckner and Jared Rademacher.

The Journal of the twenty-eighth day was approved as corrected.

311.095. 1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, any person who possesses the qualifications required by this chapter, and who now or hereafter meets the requirements of and complies with the provisions of this chapter, may apply for, and the supervisor of liquor control may issue, a license to sell intoxicating liquor, as defined in this chapter, by the drink at retail for consumption on the premises of any resort as described in the application. As used in this section the term "resort" means any establishment having at least thirty rooms for the overnight accommodation of transient guests, having a restaurant or similar facility on the premises at least sixty percent of the gross income of which is derived from the sale of prepared meals or food, or means a restaurant provided with special space and accommodations where, in consideration of payment, food, without lodging, is habitually furnished to travelers and customers, and which restaurant establishment's annual gross receipts immediately preceding its application for a license shall not have been less than seventy-five thousand dollars per year with at least fifty thousand dollars of such gross receipts from nonalcoholic sales, or means a seasonal resort restaurant with food sales as determined in subsection 2 of this section. Any facility which is owned and operated as a part of the resort may be used to sell intoxicating liquor by the drink for consumption on the premises of such facility and, for the purpose of meeting the annual gross receipts requirements of this subsection, if any facility which is a part of the resort meets such requirement, such requirement shall be deemed met for any other facility which is a part of the resort.

2. A seasonal resort restaurant is a restaurant which is not a new restaurant establishment and which is open for business eight or fewer consecutive months in any calendar year. Fifty percent of all gross sales of such restaurant shall be sales of prepared meals. Any new seasonal resort restaurant establishment having been in operation for less than twelve weeks may be issued a temporary license to sell intoxicating liquor by the drink at retail for consumption on the premises for a period not to exceed ninety days if the seasonal resort restaurant establishment can show a projection for annualized gross sales of which fifty percent shall be sales of prepared meals. The temporary license fee and the annual license fee shall be prorated to reflect the period of operation of the seasonal resort restaurant. The license shall be valid only during the period for which application was made and for which the fee was paid. Any seasonal resort restaurant upon resuming business for its season of operation shall not be considered a new establishment for purposes of issuing a temporary license. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a seasonal resort restaurant from becoming a resort restaurant upon application, payment of fees, and compliance with the requirements of this chapter.

3. The times for opening and closing the establishments as fixed in section 311.290, the authority for the collection of fees by counties as provided in section 311.220, and all city ordinances, and all other laws and regulations of the state relating to the sale of liquor by the drink for consumption on the premises where sold shall apply to resorts in the same manner as they apply to establishments licensed [under] pursuant to section 311.090.

4. Any new resort or restaurant establishment having been in operation for less than ninety days may be issued a temporary license to sell intoxicating liquor by the drink at retail for consumption on the premises for a period not to exceed ninety days if the resort or restaurant establishment can show a projection of an annual gross receipts of not less than seventy-five thousand dollars per year with at least fifty thousand dollars of such gross receipts from nonalcoholic sales. The license fee shall be prorated for the period of the temporary license based on the cost of the annual license for the establishment.

5. Before any license is issued or renewed pursuant to this section, the supervisor of liquor control shall require proof of a city license, if applicable.

Section C. Because immediate action is necessary to avoid a conflict in the renewal of liquor licenses section B of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and section B of this act shall be in full force and effect on July 1, 1999, or upon its passage and approval, whichever last occurs."

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTIETH DAY, Thursday, February 25, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Vicky Riback Wilson.

We cannot merely pray to You, O God, to end war; for we know that You have made the world in such a way that we each must find our own path to peace, within ourselves and with our neighbor.

We cannot merely pray to You, O God, to end starvation; for You have already given us the resources with which to feed the entire world, if we would only use them wisely.

We cannot merely pray to You, O God, to end disease; for You have already given us great minds with which to search out cures and healings, if we would only use them constructively.

We cannot merely pray to you, O God, to root out prejudice; for You have already given us eyes with which to see the good in all people, if we would only use them rightly.

We cannot merely pray to You, O God, to end despair for You have already given us the power to clear away slums and to give hope, if we would only use our power justly.

Therefore, we pray to You instead, O God, for strength, compassion, determination, and will power, to do instead of just to pray, to become instead of merely to wish.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTY-FIRST DAY, Monday, March 1, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Denny Merideth.

Heavenly Father,

We pause for a moment to reflect upon the greatness of life, to look about these magnificent halls, to feel the warmth of the sun through these beautifully stained glass windows, and to give thanks for the thrill of being alive. We shall be eternally grateful for Your gracious gifts and abundant blessings. This indeed is another great day!!!

Help us, O Lord, to be ever mindful though of those we serve. Give us the wisdom to do their bidding for it is their lives that our actions will affect. Keep us humble so that we may listen and learn. Give us the strength to represent the view of our people back home. Keep us honest so that we can stay free. Give us the character to valiantly lead and not grow weary. Help us to walk a straight line and maintain a sense of values.

We also ask for You to watch over former Representative Opal Parks as she begins yet another recovery. This we humbly pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirtieth day was approved as corrected.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTY-SECOND DAY, Tuesday, March 2, 1999

Prayer by Representative Bill Luetkenhaus.

Lord, we thank You for giving us another day to serve You and all mankind. Give us the wisdom and courage necessary to make decisions as we vote on many issues before us this session. Most importantly, give us the virtues of patience, tolerance and respect of others who may have different opinions than ours on the difficult issues we face.

Lord, please comfort and strengthen our colleagues who have lost loved ones. Let them know that we are there for them. Bless and heal our colleagues who have been sick.

Lord, You have blessed us in many, many ways and we thank You for all You have given us. Amen.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 1

WHEREAS, one hundred fifty years have now passed since the greatest tragedy in Irish history occurred: The Great Irish Famine, also known as An Gorta Mor, the Great Starvation, the Great Hunger, the Irish Potato Blight, the Potato Famine, and the Great Irish Hunger; and

WHEREAS, this catastrophic five-year period between 1845 and 1850 in which millions of Irish people perished or emigrated was due to mass starvation precipitated by a recurring potato crop failure and worsened by acts of the British government which ignored the plight of the people; and

WHEREAS, the thousands upon thousands of bodies which required burial in a short period of time necessitated creation of the "sliding coffin", a hinged coffin which was used to transport the deceased to the graveyard where it would be placed over a huge pit, its bottom would drop, and the victim would fall into the common grave below; and

WHEREAS, Ireland lost nearly one half of its population during this dreadful famine, a catastrophe of astronomic proportions which needs to be examined and discussed in the public schools of Missouri in an effort to reaffirm the commitment of free people of all nations to eradicate the causes of famine that exist in the modern world and to engender an appreciation for Irish Americans; and

WHEREAS, many of the Irish immigrated to the Show-Me State where they distinguished themselves by their great contributions to the formation of Missouri, a long list of remarkable individuals which includes Joseph Charles who in 1808 founded the first newspaper west of the Mississippi River, the Missouri Gazette; and

WHEREAS, it would be in the best interests of the Missouri's public school students for the State Board of Education to prepare and make available to all school boards instructional materials that can be used as guidelines for the development of a unit of instruction on the Irish Famine:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate of the Ninetieth General Assembly, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby join unanimously in expressing our support of the inclusion of a unit of instruction studying the causes and effects of mass starvation in mid-nineteenth century Ireland in every public elementary school and high school curriculum in Missouri; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 2

WHEREAS, telecommunications services and energy services and sources are vital to the economic vitality and well-being of the state of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, there is a nationwide trend toward deregulation of telecommunications services and energy services and sources which may create competitive markets and make available new services and customer choices; and

WHEREAS, the state and political subdivisions have imposed taxes, fees and other assessments on various telecommunications and energy services, and such taxes vary widely based upon locality and, within a locality, such taxes may vary widely between increasingly related and competitive services, such as telephone and cable television; and

WHEREAS, there is currently a nationwide trend toward competition in the production, distribution and sale of energy, including electricity, natural gas and other energy sources, and this trend has both potential benefits and potential adverse effects on energy producers, distributors, retailers, customers and the citizens of this state; and

WHEREAS, ensuring adequate and affordable telecommunications services and energy services and sources will necessitate a fair and equitable structure of taxes across different telecommunications and energy services and across different regions of the state; and

WHEREAS, the issue of whether governmental entities should expend public resources to compete with private telecommunications and energy entities should be explored; and

WHEREAS, a Joint Interim Committee on Telecommunications and Energy has studied the above-mentioned issues during the tenure of the Eighty-ninth General Assembly and recommends that a similar study committee be established to such study during the tenure of the Ninetieth General Assembly;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said committee conduct an in-depth study and make appropriate recommendations concerning financial, legal, social, taxation, environmental, technological and economic issues of telecommunications and energy services taxation, competition between governmental entities and private telecommunication entities, and any other issues the committee deems relevant; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said committee conduct an in-depth study and make appropriate recommendations concerning financial, legal, social, taxation, environmental, technological and economic issues of deregulation and increasing competition in energy production, distribution and sale including consideration of the effects on residential customers, small business customers, large business customers, utility shareholders and other stakeholders and any other issues the committee deems relevant; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the committee prepare an interim report, together with its recommendations for any legislative action it deems necessary for submission to the General Assembly prior to the commencement of the Second Regular Session of the Ninetieth General Assembly and a final report, together with its recommendations for any legislative action it deems necessary for submission to the General Assembly prior to the commencement of the First Regular Session of the Ninety-First General Assembly; and

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, Wednesday, March 3, 1999

Representative Smith in the Chair.

Our Dear Heavenly Father,

We continue to ask for Your blessings as we do our work as public servants for the citizens of this state. Part of our job is to perfect legislation by adding to or taking away from that which is before us. Remind us, Oh Lord, that we too need to work on the perfection process in our own lives.

We know we will never be perfect, but with Your guidance and teachings we can improve upon the person we are today. Help us to be more understanding, considerate, kind and appreciative. Grant us the patience to be good listeners, the courage to stand by our convictions, the willingness to work together and the wisdom to make good decisions.

And God, direct us to take a look at ourselves, to work on our weaknesses and build on our strengths so we may be a good example to all we serve. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Matt Belcher, Matt King, Amy Kotwani, Andy Langdon, Patty Long, Justin Royce Nurski, Katie Palmer, Aimee Pike, Bridget Taylor and Rachel Wardlow.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as corrected.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, Thursday, March 4, 1999

Prayer by Representative Matt Blunt.

Heavenly Father, we ask for Your blessings on Missouri on this day. Help this body to remember that we are not the most important thing in this state, but temper that with the realization that what we do is important. Let us understand that what we do in an instant could have far reaching and long lasting consequences for our fellow citizens.

Lord, enable us to lead this state with Your commands as our guide. Force us to the realization that any law which contradicts Your commandments is doomed to failure.

Bless this body and bless this state in Christ's name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Elizabeth Kilby, Libbi Gordon, Ricky Woods, Staci Peterson, Michelle Jansen, Krystal Newman, Carl Hicks, T.J. Duane, Benjamin James Young, William Arthur Young, Rachel Catherine Young and Lisa Kristine Young.

The Journal of the thirty-third day was approved as corrected.

House Committee Substitute

For

House Concurrent Resolution No. 3

Relating to Joint Committee on Legislative Term Limits.

WHEREAS, at the general election of 1992, seventy-five percent of Missouri voters adopted a measure to limit the terms of members of the Missouri General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, all legislators elected after 1992 are limited to a maximum of eight years, or four terms, in the Missouri House of Representatives, and eight years, or two terms, in the Missouri Senate; and

WHEREAS, while the merits of legislative term limits can and will be debated by numerous citizens and interested parties, there is no question: that term limits are part of the Missouri Constitution; that this law has already shortened the terms of some Missouri legislators; and that these limits will produce substantial repercussions on state government in the foreseeable future; and

WHEREAS, it would be a responsible and prudent action to prepare for the impending impact of legislative term limits; and

WHEREAS, it should be determined whether term limits will affect the balance of power between the legislative, executive and judicial branches, and if so, what measures should be taken to preserve the strength of the legislative branch; and

WHEREAS, it should also be determined whether term limits are likely to lead to an increased influence for state government employees and governmental consultants, or lobbyists, and, if so, if any preparations should be made to counteract this increased influence; and

WHEREAS, because of term limits, the citizen-members of the Missouri General Assembly will be expected to assume leadership positions and committee chairmanships at a faster rate than is currently expected even though they will have less time to study issues or learn the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, the potential impact on urban, suburban and rural issues and representation should be studied; and

WHEREAS, it could be of great assistance in preparing for the impact of term limits if ideas, recommendations and information could be garnered from present and former legislators, political scientists, interested citizens and scholars who have previously studied this issue and are familiar with term limit ramifications in other states:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the Missouri House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, that a Joint Committee on Legislative Term Limits be created to study the likely effects of term limits and to make recommendations on how best to prepare for the impact of term limits; and

BE IT FUTHER RESOLVED that the committee be comprised of ten members, five members to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and five members to be appointed by the President Pro Tem of the Senate, with no more than three House members or three Senate members being from the same political party and with at least two House members and two Senate members first being elected in or prior to November 1994 and at least one House member and one Senate member first being elected after November 1994; and

BE IT RESOLVED that the committee be authorized to hold hearings and investigations as it deems advisable, and that the staffs of House Research, Senate Research and the Committee on Legislative Research provide any technical or clerical assistance requested by the committee and the members of the committee shall receive reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties for the committee; and

BE IT RESOLVED that the committee report its recommendations and finds to the Missouri General Assembly by January 1, 2000, and that the authority of such committee shall terminate on December 31, 2000; and

BE IT RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tem of the Senate.

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, Monday, March 8, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Gracia Backer.

Our most Gracious Heavenly Father, my prayer today can't begin by thanking You for the beautiful Spring day, for the wind is blowing, the sky is gray and the precious, tender beginnings of daffodils and crocus are shivering beneath the ice.

Rather, this afternoon, I thank You for giving us change in our lives, even sunny, warm days can be boring and dull. And we know by living in Missouri we can easily experience all four seasons within a two day span.

Change sometimes brings confusion and controversy. Change sometimes brings fresh ideas and new techniques. Change is sometimes messy and disorganized. Change is sometimes orderly and neat. But whatever occurs, Your hand is in our hand to help us through the things we cannot change or will not change.

We thank You for continually being in front of us, beside us and behind us to clean up the messes we daily make through harshly spoken words, unkind deeds or mean thoughts. We know one thing is certain - You do not change. The day may be cold and rainy, but Your love is as warm as a tropical day in Hawaii. We may use Your name in vain, but Your love does not turn away from us. We may submit to vanity and pride, but Your love for us remains humble and pure. First Corinthians 13, tell us that love never fails. We thank You today, Gracious Lord, that Your love for us never changes like the seasons we have seen this week. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-fourth day was approved as corrected.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY, Tuesday, March 9, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Ronnie Miller.

Heavenly Father,

We pause to honor You for being in total control of Your world. Thank You for controlling the seconds as well as the centuries. Thank You for controlling the nights and the days, also the births and the deaths.

Help us to be mindful that we are only a heartbeat away from eternity. When the stress of our job becomes great, thank You for the promise to grant us the peace that passes all human understanding.

Lord, we lift our elder Statesman Fletcher Daniels up to You as he fights health problems.

Heavenly Father, be with our families for the weeks and months ahead while we're apart.

Forgive us when we fail You, in Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Shawn Laughlin, Roselee Forbes, Luke Baum, Marie Holloway, Ashley Dobrcenski, Darren Stolz, Rachael Crain, Jennifer Knapp and Ben Virtue.

The Journal of the thirty-fifth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

WHEREAS, on March 8, 1999, Walter Cronkite, CBS News Special Correspondent and lifelong journalist, will be inducted into the Hall of Famous Missourians, a series of bronze busts of famous Missourians housed in the third floor rotunda of the Missouri State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, born in St. Joseph, Missouri, on November 4, 1916, Walter Cronkite began his journalism career as a campus correspondent at the Houston Post before graduating from the University of Texas, accepting his first full-time job as a sports announcer for a local radio station in Oklahoma City, and serving as a World War II correspondent for United Press; and

WHEREAS, Walter Cronkite's career in journalism spans more than sixty years, forty-eight of which he has devoted to CBS News as a news correspondent and anchorman who conducted exclusive interviews with political figures and covered countless historic events that include the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II, Premier Nikita Khrushchev's first visit to the United States, the Vietnam War, this nation's Bicentennial, and the American hostage crisis in Iran; and

WHEREAS, known affectionately as "Old Iron Pants" for his unflappability under pressure, Walter Cronkite came to be regarded as an authority on America's space program, reporting on the first two decades of this country's manned space mission, for which he was honored with the Boston Museum of Science's Bradford Washburn Award in 1970 and an award from the Skyline Foundation for distinguished contributions to the understanding of aerospace progress in 1978; and

WHEREAS, Walter Cronkite established a remarkable trust and admiration in his audience, and anchored and reported on many editions of CBS REPORTS and other special broadcasts that include The Rockefellers, Solzhenitsyn, Watergate, and his coverage of several Apollo flights, all of which earned Emmy Awards; and

WHEREAS, inducted into the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Hall of Fame in 1985, Walter Cronkite has been honored with two Peabody Awards, the Freedom of Press Award, the Alfred I. duPont-Columbia University Award, the Presidential Medal of Freedom, and the William Allen White Award for Journalistic Merit, the first broadcast journalist to be so lauded; and

WHEREAS, a devoted husband, loving father, avid sailor, and renowned author, Walter Cronkite continues his ongoing assignments for CBS while producing more than forty documentary hours for The Discovery Channel, PBS, and other networks with The Cronkite Ward Company, which he established in 1993 with former CBS colleague, Jonathan Ward:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninetieth General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and best wishes to Walter Cronkite upon his well-deserved induction into the Hall of Famous Missourians; and

"To repeal section 162.975, RSMo Supp. 1998, and to enact in lieu thereof five new sections for the sole purpose of increasing the reading levels of younger children."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section 1, Line 1, by inserting before all of said line the following:

"Section A. Section 162.975, RSMo Supp. 1994, is repealed and five new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 162.975, 1, 2, 3 and 4, to read as follows:

162.975. 1. Each school district or special school district which provides approved special education services for handicapped or severely handicapped children under sections 162.670 to 162.995 or approved extended school year services for such children, shall be entitled under section 163.031, RSMo, to receive state aid. Additional state aid for such programs shall be allocated as follows in the following order of priority:

(1) A school district or special school district shall receive state aid for each child receiving services on homebound status or served by contractual arrangement with a private or public agency approved by the department of elementary and secondary education. The amount paid from state aid for such services shall be adjusted annually by the percent change in the appropriation of state funds to this section for the current fiscal year compared with that for the first preceding fiscal year.

(2) A school district or special school district shall receive state aid for approved extended school year services for handicapped or severely handicapped children. Prior to full implementation of subdivisions (4), (5) and (6) of this subsection, state aid paid for each approved staff member shall bear the same ratio to the amount payable for such staff during the immediate preceding school year as the ratio of the number of hours in the approved extended school year program bears to the number of hours in regular term programs for each respective school district or special school district approved under this section; provided that this amount shall be adjusted annually by the percentage change in the appropriation of state funds to this section for the current fiscal year compared with the appropriation level for the first preceding fiscal year. After full implementation of subdivisions (4), (5) and (6) of this subsection, state aid shall be paid for each approved staff in an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount payable for such staff during the immediate preceding school year as the ratio of the number of hours in the approved extended school year program bears to the number of hours in regular term programs for each respective school district or special school district approved pursuant to this section; provided that the amount payable per approved staff member pursuant to this subdivision for the year of full implementation of subdivisions (4), (5) and (6) of this subsection and thereafter shall be, on a prorated basis, two times the amount payable per approved staff member pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection for the current school year.

(3) The division of youth services within the Missouri department of social services shall receive state aid for approved special education services. State aid shall be paid for each full-time equivalent professional and paraprofessional staff member approved by the department of elementary and secondary education at the rate paid during the first full fiscal year preceding the year in which this section becomes effective plus an annual adjustment equal to the percent change in the appropriation of state funds to this section for the current fiscal year compared with the appropriation level for the first preceding year.

(4) A school district or special school district shall receive state aid for approved professional and paraprofessional staff who are employed or contracted to provide special education services for handicapped and severely handicapped children, including staff used by a school district or special school district to provide services before and after the normal school day for students attending nonpublic schools, who are in compliance with section 167.031, RSMo. Each school district or special school district employing or contracting for professional services or paraprofessional staff in the provision of special education services, as defined and approved by the department of elementary and secondary education, shall receive state aid at a full-time equivalent rate based upon the total allocation of funds pursuant to this subdivision, after sufficient funds are allocated for subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of this subsection. Paraprofessional staff shall be paid at one-half the rate paid full-time equivalents of professional staff and contractors.

(5) Each school district or special school district providing special education services for handicapped or severely handicapped children shall receive state aid pursuant to section 163.031, RSMo, for each such eligible pupil, and such school district shall receive state aid for each child domiciled in the district and enrolled in a nonpublic school, who are in compliance with section 167.031, RSMo. The per resident student rate paid for students enrolled in nonpublic schools shall be one-half that paid per eligible pupil for students enrolled in a school district or special school district.

(6) No more than fifty percent of the total state aid appropriated pursuant to subdivisions (4) and (5) of this subsection shall be distributed pursuant to subdivision (5) of this subsection. No less than fifty percent of the state aid appropriated pursuant to subdivisions (4) and (5) of this subsection shall be distributed pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection. A sufficient share of the funds appropriated pursuant to this subsection shall be appropriated pursuant to subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of this subsection to meet the requirements of those subdivisions. To the extent allowed by appropriations, the share of funds appropriated pursuant to subdivisions (4) and (5) of this subsection under subdivision (5) shall be increased until that share is equal to fifty percent, at which time subdivisions (4), (5) and (6) of this subsection shall be considered fully implemented, and such share shall remain equal to fifty percent for all years thereafter. No district shall receive less state aid under this section than received during the year preceding that when the phased implementation was begun.

(7) Contractors providing professional services funded under this section shall meet the state licensing and certification requirements appropriate to their contracted duties, as determined by the department of elementary and secondary education.

2. For approved special education and related services provided for handicapped and severely handicapped children under five years of age, but not under the age of three, entitlements for state aid established pursuant to this section and distributed pursuant to section 163.031, RSMo, shall not exceed ninety percent of the cost of the programs as specified in project applications and approved by the department of elementary and secondary education. Such programs shall not be eligible to receive funds allocated pursuant to subsection 1 of this section.

3. Each school district or special school district which provides an approved remedial reading program under provisions of sections 162.670 to 162.995 shall receive state aid established pursuant to this subsection and distributed pursuant to section 163.031, RSMo. The amount paid from state aid for such services per full-time employee remedial reading teacher shall be adjusted annually by the percentage change in the appropriation of state funds for the state school aid district entitlements as established pursuant to section 163.031, RSMo, for the current fiscal year compared with that for the first preceding fiscal year. Such programs shall not be eligible to receive funds allocated pursuant to subsection 1 of this section.

4. For approved programs for gifted children, districts shall receive state aid under section 163.031, RSMo, not to exceed seventy-five percent of the cost of instructional personnel and special materials listed in project applications and approved by the department of elementary and secondary education. Such programs shall not be eligible to receive funds allocated pursuant to subsection 1 of this section."; and

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, Wednesday, March 10, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Emmy McClelland.

Dear God, our Creator and maker of all that is good, we ask that You will hear our prayer today.

Like little children waiting in anticipation for Christmas to come, many of us have been counting the days until tomorrow... the first day of our Spring vacation. Lord let us not spend today waiting in eager anticipation for tomorrow... for this is the day that You have made, let us rejoice and be glad in it. Let us never forget that every day You give us is a wondrous and marvelous gift, full of unlimited opportunities to do Your will on Earth.

Lord we ask that You will help us today to use wisely our time, our talents, and our strength. Give us the courage and the humility to right any wrongs that we did yesterday. We pray that You will fill us with Your Holy Spirit and that You will direct our thinking, our words, and our actions so that when this day's work is finished we may deserve Your "Well done". Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Claudia Laubstein, Natalia Gomey, Trixie Rauchfuss, Maria Medina, Sandra Olsinski, Jessica Kneissler, Alexander Sloka, Justin MacAnisch, Ainey Owens, Amber Owens, Aaron Owens, Aston Owens, Autumn Owens, Austin Owens and Natalia Gomez.

The Journal of the thirty-sixth day was approved as corrected.

RESOLUTION

HR 369, relating to Putnam County High School Lady Midgets, was taken up by Representative Summers and read.

House Resolution No. 369

WHEREAS, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take great pride in recognizing an outstanding group of young athletes who have enjoyed considerable success through steadfast commitment to the highest standards of excellence; and

WHEREAS, in the fall of 1998, the members of the Putnam County High School Lady Midgets Softball Team distinguished themselves as they took First Place at the Missouri State High School Activities Association Class 2A State Softball Championship; and

WHEREAS, the talented Putnam County Lady Midgets emerged victorious over the Westran team in the championship game, during which they shut out the competition and came out on top with a final score of 2-0; and

WHEREAS, the Putnam County Lady Midgets could not have attained such phenomenal success this season without the exemplary leadership provided by Head Coach Mike Schmidli, who has instilled in all his outstanding players the desire to realize their fullest potential, and without the inspiration of former coach Max Mothersbaugh, who served from 1988 to 1997 and finished with a remarkable record of 204-28; and

WHEREAS, in the last eleven years, the Putnam County Lady Midgets have won eleven District Championships; have finished in the Final Four ten times; and have attained an impressive overall record of 228 wins, 32 losses, and 1 tie; and

WHEREAS, few athletes possess the exceptional talent displayed by the Putnam County Lady Midgets, all of whom have put on many spectacular performances to finish the exciting season with a record of 24-4, while honorably representing their school both on and off the field; and

WHEREAS, fellow students, faculty and staff of Putnam County High School, parents, and the entire community are exceedingly proud of the Lady Midgets for their unwavering unanimity while aspiring towards incredible goals:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninetieth General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to the Putnam County Lady Midgets for achieving the pinnacle of success by taking First Place in the Class 2A State Championship, and further extend to them our very best wishes as they continue to maintain their high standards for achievement; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Putnam County High School.

Section A. Sections 115.391, 115.393 and 115.397, RSMo 1994, and section 115.395, RSMo Supp. 1998, are repealed and four new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 115.391, 115.393, 115.395 and 115.397, to read as follows:

115.391. Not later than the fourth Tuesday prior to the primary election 2002, each election authority shall prepare a sample official [ballots] ballot. The sample [ballots] ballot shall contain, under the appropriate offices and party designations, the names of all candidates to be voted on in its jurisdiction in the order they will appear on the ballot. Each sample ballot shall be printed upon tinted or colored paper, of a different tint or color from the official primary ballot, and shall contain no endorsements. Immediately after having the sample [ballots] ballot prepared, each election authority shall mail to the chairman of each county committee in its jurisdiction and to each candidate named on the ballot, a copy of the sample ballot [for his party]. The election authority shall also post a copy of [each] the sample ballot in a conspicuous place in its office.

115.393. Prior to the primary election, each election authority shall correct any errors or omissions on the sample [ballots] ballot and cause official ballots to be printed. [For each party having a ballot at the primary election,] The election authority shall deliver to each polling place a number of ballots equal to at least one and a half times the number of ballots cast in the voting district [for the party] at the next to last primary election. [If no ballots were cast for a party in a voting district at the last primary election, the election authority shall deliver to the polling place a number of ballots estimated to be sufficient for the party.]

115.395. 1. At each primary election, there shall be [as many separate ballots as there are parties entitled to participate in the election] one ballot.

2. The names of the candidates for each office on [each party] the ballot shall be listed by party in the order in which they are filed, except that, in the case of candidates who file a declaration of candidacy with the secretary of state prior to 5:00 p.m. on the first day for filing, the secretary of state shall determine by random drawing for each party the order in which such candidates' names shall appear on the ballot. The drawing shall be conducted so that each candidate may draw a number at random at the time of filing. The secretary of state shall record the number drawn with the candidate's declaration of candidacy. The names of candidates filing on the first day for filing for each office on [each party] the ballot shall be listed by party in ascending order of the numbers so drawn. For the purposes of this subsection, the election authority responsible for oversight of the filing of candidates, other than candidates that file with the secretary of state, shall clearly designate where candidates shall form a line to effectuate such filings and determine the order of such filings; except that, in the case of candidates who file a declaration of candidacy with the election authority prior to 5:00 p.m. on the first day for filing, the election authority may determine by random drawing for each party the order in which such candidates' names shall appear on the ballot. If a drawing is conducted pursuant to this subsection, it shall be conducted so that each candidate may draw a number at random at the time of filing. If such drawing is conducted, the election authority shall record the number drawn with the candidate's declaration of candidacy. If such drawing is conducted, the names of candidates filing on the first day for filing for each office on [each party] the ballot shall be listed by party in ascending order of the numbers so drawn.

3. Insofar as applicable, the provisions of sections 115.237, 115.241 and 115.245 shall apply to [each] the ballot prepared for a primary election, except that the ballot information may be placed in vertical or horizontal rows[, no circle shall appear under any party name] and no write-in lines shall appear under the name of any office for which a candidate is to be nominated at the primary. At a primary election, write-in votes shall be counted only for persons who can be elected to an office at the primary.

115.397. 1. In each primary election, each voter shall be entitled to receive [the] one ballot [of]. Each voter shall vote on the candidates from one and only one political party, designated by the voter [before receiving his ballot.] on the first page of such voter's ballot in substantially the following form, and followed by such other directions to voters as established pursuant to section 115.439:

"Instructions to voters: Choose the party primary in which you will vote. You may choose one party only. Place an "X" in the circle immediately below the name of the party primary in which you intend to vote.

Such form shall be followed until all parties entitled to participate in the primary election have been named on the ballot. Each party entitled to participate in the primary shall have its own pages on the ballot, separate from all other parties as detailed in the form set forth in this subsection, and all of such party's candidates for each office shall be listed together by office on such pages in the manner prescribed in section 115.395. For purposes of this subsection, any electronic or other means approved by law may be used in lieu of the "X" prescribed by the form in this subsection.

2. Each voter who [participates in a] votes on the party primary portion of the ballot shall be entitled to vote on all questions and for any nonpartisan candidates submitted by political subdivisions and special districts at the primary election. Each voter who does not wish to [participate in a] vote on the party primary portion may vote on all questions and for any nonpartisan candidates submitted by a political subdivision or special district at the primary election.

[115.758. On or before the tenth Tuesday prior to the date of the presidential preference primary, the secretary of state shall announce the official list of presidential candidates for each established political party as provided in section 115.761.]

[115.761. 1. The official list of presidential candidates for each established political party shall include the names of all constitutionally qualified candidates who meet all of the requirements specified in the rules of the state or national party organization of each established political party for whom, on or after 8:00 a.m. on the second Tuesday in December in the year preceding the presidential primary, and on or before 5:00 p.m., on the eleventh Tuesday prior to the presidential primary, a written request to be included on the presidential primary ballot is filed with the secretary of state along with:

(1) Receipt of payment to the state committee of the established political party on whose ballot the candidate wishes to appear of a filing fee of one thousand dollars; or

(2) A written statement, sworn to before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, that the candidate is unable to pay the filing fee and does not have funds in a campaign fund or committee to pay the filing fee and a petition signed by not less than one thousand registered voters in each of the state's congressional districts requesting that the candidate's name be placed on the ballot of the specified established political party for the presidential preference primary. The request to be included on the presidential primary ballot shall be in substantially the following form:

I (We) the undersigned, do hereby request that the name of ..... be placed upon the April ....., ....., presidential primary ballot as candidate for nomination as the nominee for President of the United States on the ..... party ticket.

2. The state or national party organization of an established political party which adopts rules imposing signature requirements to be met before a candidate can be listed as an official candidate shall notify the secretary of state by October first of the year preceding the presidential primary.

3. Any candidate or such candidate's authorized representative may have such candidate's name stricken from the presidential primary ballot by, on or before 5:00 p.m. on the Friday before the tenth Tuesday prior to the election, filing with the secretary of state a written statement, sworn to before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, requesting that such candidate's name not be printed on the official primary ballot. Thereafter, the secretary of state shall not include the name of that candidate in the official list announced under section 115.758 or in the certified list of candidates transmitted under section 115.765.

4. The filing times set out in this section shall only apply to presidential preference primaries, and are in lieu of those established in section 115.349.]

[115.765. On or before the tenth Tuesday prior to a presidential preference primary, the secretary of state shall transmit to each election authority a certified list containing the names of all candidates whose names shall appear on the presidential preference primary ballot of each party. The names of the candidates shall appear in the order in which their request to be included on the presidential primary ballot was received in the office of the secretary of state, except that, in the case of candidates who file a request to be included on the presidential primary ballot with the secretary of state prior to 5:00 p.m. on the first day for filing, the secretary of state shall determine by random drawing the order in which such candidates' names shall appear on the ballot. The drawing shall be conducted so that each candidate, or candidate's representative, may draw a number at random at the time of filing. The secretary of state shall record the number drawn with the candidate's request to be included on the presidential primary ballot. The names of candidates filing on the first day for filing on each party ballot shall be listed in ascending order of the numbers so drawn.]

[115.767. Each election authority shall cause the name of candidates certified by the secretary of state to appear on the presidential preference primary ballot of each party, followed by a listing for an uncommitted vote.]

[115.770. The conduct of the presidential preference primary election and the count and canvass of the votes cast therein shall conform as nearly as is practicable to that prescribed for the conduct of the primary election for state officers. All primary election laws not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 115.750 to 115.785 shall be applicable to the conduct of this election, and the form of the ballot insofar as is practicable shall be substantially as that prescribed by section 115.395. In a presidential preference primary, each voter shall be entitled to receive the ballot of one and only one established political party, designated by the voter before receiving such voter's ballot. Each voter who participates in a presidential preference primary shall be entitled to vote on all questions and for any candidates submitted by political subdivisions and special districts at the general municipal election. Each voter who does not wish to participate in a presidential preference primary may vote on all questions and for any candidates submitted by a political subdivision or special district at the general municipal election.]

[115.773. After the count and canvass of the votes cast, the secretary of state shall notify the state chair of each of the established political parties for whom a candidate was listed, of the number of votes and the proportion of the total number of votes recorded in that established political party's primary that each candidate and uncommitted listing received in each congressional district individually and in the state at large.]

[115.776. 1. The state party organization which is the state organization recognized by the national organization of that established political party shall, after the primary and before the national convention, conduct a series of caucuses culminating in congressional and state conventions. Delegates to the national conventions shall be chosen at the congressional district and state conventions pursuant to rules established by the political parties; provided, however that rules so established require national delegates to be pledged to support presidential candidates as provided by section 115.625 and sections 115.250 to 115.785. The delegates and alternates shall be selected as provided in this section; except that, if the rules of the national committee of the established political party are in conflict with the provisions of this section, then the national committee rules shall govern the selection of delegates where in conflict with this section.

2. Not less than three-fourths of the convention delegates from the state to the national convention shall be allocated equally to the state congressional districts. Those delegates not allotted to congressional districts must be allotted to the state as at-large delegates. Additional at-large delegates allocated to a state under national party rules shall not be included in the calculation of the proportion of the state's delegates allocated to congressional districts and at large.

3. Following the state presidential primary, a person seeking to be selected as national convention delegate or alternate must designate whether or not such person is committed, and, if committed, to which candidate such person is committed.

4. To qualify as a delegate from a congressional district, a person must be a properly registered voter of the congressional district from which he seeks to be a delegate. To qualify as an at-large delegate, a person must be a registered voter of this state.

5. If a delegate or alternate dies, withdraws or becomes disqualified after such person has been selected and before the national convention for which such person is selected has begun, such person shall be replaced by a qualified person committed to the same preference and selected by the party's congressional district committee or state committee, as the case may be.

6. Congressional district delegates and alternates shall be selected so that the proportion of the total district delegates and alternates that are committed to each candidate or are uncommitted equals as nearly as possible the proportion of the popular vote cast in the presidential primary election in that district for each candidate and for the uncommitted position; except that votes for a candidate or for the uncommitted position which total less than fifteen percent of the district total shall be counted as uncommitted in determining proportions of district delegates awarded if the sum of all such votes exceeds fifteen percent of the district total.

7. At-large delegates and alternates shall be selected in numerical order from each slate so that the proportion of the total at-large delegates and alternates that are uncommitted or committed to each candidate equals as nearly as possible the proportion of the popular vote for that established political party that was cast as uncommitted and for each candidate or uncommitted listing that total less than fifteen percent of the total shall be counted as uncommitted in determining proportions of district delegates awarded as if the sum of all such votes exceeds fifteen percent of the state total.

8. The product arrived at for each candidate or the uncommitted vote shall be rounded off to the nearest whole number to arrive at the number of delegates to be awarded to a particular candidate or the uncommitted vote. The percentage of the vote received by each candidate and for uncommitted shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this section and shall not take into consideration the votes for any candidate or uncommitted listing that total less than fifteen percent of the district total or the state at large as the case may be.

9. The delegates and alternates shall be selected and allocated as provided in this section; except that, if the rules of the national committee of the established political party are in conflict with the provisions of this section, then the national committee rules shall govern the selection and allocation of delegates where in conflict with this section.]; and

3. A party candidate shall be certified by the commission as a participating candidate for receipt of proportional public funding for the general election if the candidate complies with subsection 1 of this section and meets the following requirements:

2. An independent candidate who qualifies for public funding on the basis of qualifying contributions shall receive his or her line of credit for total public funding in the general election on the first day of the primary election campaign period, or when qualified, whichever occurs later.

3. The qualifying contributions of an independent candidate shall be raised between the beginning of the public funding qualifying period and the date thirty days after the filing deadline date for independent candidates.

Section 5. A participating candidate who accepts any benefits pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act during the primary election shall comply with all requirements of sections 1 to 21 of this act throughout the general election during the same election cycle. A participating candidate who accepts benefits during a primary shall not elect to accept private contributions in violation of sections 1 to 21 of this act during the corresponding general election.

2. In an election year, each candidate in a primary election for an office subject to sections 1 to 21 of this act, whether participating or nonparticipating, shall furnish a complete campaign finance report, including a record of all campaign contributions, all seed money contributions, qualifying contributions and expenditures to the commission by the first day of March, the first day of May, the first day of June, the first day of July, the fifteenth day of July and by the day seven business days before the date of the primary election.

3. In an election year, each candidate in a general election for an office subject to sections 1 to 21 of this act, whether participating or nonparticipating, shall furnish a complete campaign finance report, including a record of all campaign contributions, all seed money contributions, qualifying contributions and expenditures to the commission by the first day of September, the fifteenth day of September, the first day of October, the fifteenth day of October and by the day seven business days before the date of the general election.

In addition, if a contributor's aggregate contributions to any candidate for an office subject to the provisions of sections 1 to 21 of this act exceed twenty-five dollars for any election cycle, the record shall also include the contributor's business or employment and the contributor's principal place of employment. A candidate shall cooperate with any audit or examination by the commission.

5. In the case of a qualifying contribution, the failure to record or provide complete disclosure information pursuant to subsection 3 of this section disqualifies the contribution from counting as a qualifying contribution.

6. A candidate or anyone acting on a candidate's behalf shall not accept any contribution not complying with the requirements of subsection 3 of this section.

7. A candidate shall not accept more than twenty-five dollars in cash from any given contributor.

Section 7. 1. 2. No personal funds shall be expended by a qualifying candidate after the close of the public financing qualifying period.

3. Personal funds shall not be used to meet the qualifying contribution requirement, except that each registered voter may make one five-dollar contribution.

Section 8. 1. A participating candidate may accept seed money contributions from any individual, business, association or other organization prior to the end of the public financing qualifying period, so long as the total contributions from one contributor, except personal funds otherwise permitted pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act, do not exceed one hundred dollars, and the aggregate contributions, including personal funds, do not exceed one thousand dollars for a state representative race, two thousand dollars for a state senate race, five thousand dollars for a statewide race other than governor, and ten thousand dollars for a race for governor.

2. Seed money shall only be spent during the exploratory period and the public financing qualifying period.

3. Full disclosure of seed money contributions as well as expenditures shall be made to the commission in the manner and at the times provided for reporting of other contributions in section 6 of this act.

4. In the event that excess qualifying contributions are received on an aggregate basis, such amounts may be retained and spent, with such amounts to be deducted from the candidate's public financing. In no event shall the total amount of qualifying contributions exceed the public financing to which the candidate would be entitled.

5. Any seed money and qualifying contributions received by a participating candidate and not spent by the start of the primary period shall be deposited to the credit of the democracy trust fund created pursuant to section 14 of this act at the beginning of the primary period.

Section 9. 1. To apply for public financing, a candidate shall certify to the commission that:

(1) Such candidate has complied and will comply, throughout the applicable election cycle, with all requirements of sections 1 to 21 of this act;

(2) All disclosures required as of the time of application have been made;

(3) The requisite number of qualifying contributions pursuant to section 2 or 4 of this act have been obtained, including evidence of such contributions.

2. The candidate's application for certification shall be signed by the candidate and the candidate's treasurer. Eligibility may be revoked if the candidate violates the requirements of sections 1 to 21 of this act, in which case all public funds shall be repaid.

3. The commission's determination shall be subject to prompt judicial review, on an expedited basis, in any district of the court of appeals of this state.

4. A participating candidate for the primary election shall receive his or her line of credit and fair election credit card pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act promptly after demonstrating eligibility and, in any event, not later than five days after the date of the end of the public financing qualifying period; however, funds shall not be spent until the beginning of the primary election campaign period.

5. A participating candidate for a general election shall receive his or her line of credit and fair election credit card promptly after demonstrating eligibility and, in any event, not later than five days after the date the results of the primary election are certified, except that no candidate for a particular office shall receive funds until all candidates for the office who have requested certification have either been certified or denied certification by the commission.

Section 10. 1. A candidate who qualifies for public financing in the primary or general election shall receive a line of credit for each election, the amount of which is specified in sections 1 to 21 of this act. Such line of credit may be used to finance any and all proper campaign expenditures during the primary and general election periods, to further the election of the candidate in that particular election. The line of credit shall not be used to repay any loan, and shall not be used in violation of sections 1 to 21 of this act or any other applicable law.

2. The primary election campaign public financing amounts for full public financing shall be:

(1) For a state representative candidate, fifteen thousand dollars;

(2) For a state senate candidate, fifty thousand dollars;

(3) For a candidate for statewide office other than governor, five hundred thousand dollars;

(4) For a candidate for governor, one million dollars.

3. The general election campaign public financing amounts for full public financing shall be:

(1) For a state representative candidate, fifteen thousand dollars;

(2) For a state senate candidate, fifty thousand dollars;

(3) For a candidate for statewide office other than governor, five hundred thousand dollars;

(4) For a candidate for governor, one million dollars.

4. If a participating candidate or that candidate's party received at least fifteen percent of all votes for that office in the primary or previous general election, the candidate shall receive the full amount of public funding for that office. If a participating candidate or that candidate's party received less than fifteen percent of all votes for that office in the primary and the previous general election, such candidate shall receive a portion of the public funding amount that is equal to the percentage of votes out of such fifteen percent that such candidate's party received for that office in the previous general election. A candidate who has attempted to qualify for public financing in the primary election and whose party received less than five percent of the vote in the primary election shall not qualify for any public financing in the general election.

5. A participating candidate running in a primary election where there is no other candidate in any primary for that office, and no opposing independent candidate who has filed to run or raised or spent more than one thousand dollars to seek that office, shall receive twenty-five percent of the public financing benefit.

6. A participating candidate running in a general election in which there are no other competing candidates shall receive twenty-five percent of the public financing benefit.

7. Every two years, the commission shall modify the public financing amounts provided for in this section based on the corresponding change in the Consumer Price Index published by the United States Department of Labor.

Section 11. 1. In addition to other reports required by sections 1 to 21 of this act, in an election year a nonparticipating candidate shall file a report with the commission detailing that candidate's total of funds raised, spent or obligated to be spent to date if that candidate's total receipts, expenditures or obligations of expenditure exceed the primary or general election campaign finance amount applicable to a participating candidate in the same race by an amount equal to:

- (1) Five hundred dollars, in the case of a candidate for state representative;
- (2) Two thousand five hundred dollars, in the case of a candidate for state senator;
- (3) Twenty-five thousand dollars, in the case of a candidate for statewide office.

2. Such a report shall be filed by the candidate:

- (1) At the next regular reporting date pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act, if funds which cause the candidate to exceed such an amount are received, spent or obligated to be spent before the fifteenth day of July of an election year;
- (2) Within forty-eight hours, if such funds are raised, spent or obligated to be spent between the fifteenth day of July of an election year and the day seven business days prior to the primary election, or during a period beginning with the day after a primary election and ending on the day seven business days prior to the general election; or
- (3) Within twenty-four hours, if such funds are raised, spent or obligated to be spent within the period seven business days prior to either the primary or general election.

3. A candidate who has been required to file a report pursuant to subsections 1 and 2 of this section shall file an additional report detailing all funds raised, spent or obligated to be spent since that candidate's most recent previous report for each instance in which that candidate raises, spends or obligates to be spent:

- (1) Five hundred dollars, in the case of a candidate for state representative;
- (2) Two thousand five hundred dollars, in the case of a candidate for state senator;
- (3) Twenty-five thousand dollars, in the case of a candidate for statewide office.

4. Additional reports required by subsection 3 of this section shall be filed by the candidate:

- (1) At the next regular reporting date pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act, if funds which cause the candidate to be required to file such a report are received, spent or obligated to be spent before the fifteenth day of July of an election year;
- (2) Within forty-eight hours, if such funds are raised, spent or obligated to be spent between the fifteenth day of July of an election year and the day seven business days prior to the primary election, or during a period beginning with the day after a primary election and ending on the day seven business days prior to the general election; or
- (3) Within twenty-four hours, if such funds are raised, spent or obligated to be spent within the period seven business days prior to either the primary or general election.

5. Upon receipt of a report required by subsections 1 to 5 of this section, the commission shall immediately credit an opposing participating candidate's account with an additional amount equivalent to the reported amount in excess of the public financing amount applicable to the office sought. Such matching credit shall be limited to three times the public financing limit for the applicable office, and such credit shall be in addition to the base amount of public funding otherwise provided.

6. The total amount of matching credit awarded to a candidate pursuant to this section and section 12 of this act shall be limited to an amount equaling three times the public financing limit for the applicable office.

7. At the end of both the primary and general election campaign periods, excess public funds shall be returned to the democracy trust fund created pursuant to section 14 of this act, provided that a candidate may retain and use for campaign expenses an amount equal to five dollars multiplied by the number of qualifying contributions necessary to qualify for the office for which he or she was a candidate. Any funds which are retained in this manner, and remain unexpended, shall be returned to the democracy trust fund at the beginning of the next public funding qualifying period.

Section 12. 1. If anyone makes, or becomes obligated to make, by oral or written agreement, an independent expenditure in excess of five hundred dollars in a state representative race, two thousand five hundred dollars in a state senate race, or twenty-five thousand dollars in a statewide office race, such person or entity shall file with the commission a notice of such expenditure or obligations to make such expenditure. Reports of such expenditures or obligations to make such expenditures shall be made:

(1) At the next regular reporting date for candidates pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act, if such an expenditure or obligation of expenditure is made before the fifteenth day of July of an election year;

(2) Within forty-eight hours, if such an expenditure or obligation of expenditure is made between the fifteenth day of July of an election year and the day seven business days prior to the primary election or during a period beginning with the day after a primary election and ending on the day seven business days prior to the general election; or

(3) Within twenty-four hours, if such an expenditure or obligation of expenditure is made within the period seven business days prior to either the primary or general election.

2. An additional report shall be filed after each additional independent expenditure of five hundred dollars in a state representative race, two thousand five hundred dollars in a state senate race or twenty-five thousand dollars in a statewide office race. Such an additional report shall be made:

(1) At the next regular reporting date for candidates pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act, if such an expenditure or obligation of expenditure is made before the fifteenth day of July of an election year;

(2) Within forty-eight hours, if such an expenditure or obligation of expenditure is made between the fifteenth day of July of an election year and the day seven business days prior to the primary election or during a period beginning with the day after a primary election and ending on the day seven business days prior to the general election; or

(3) Within twenty-four hours, if such an expenditure or obligation of expenditure is made within the period seven business days prior to either the primary or general election.

3. When the aggregate independent expenditures against a participating candidate or for the opponents of that same candidate exceed twenty percent of the public financing amount for that office in that election cycle, the commission shall immediately credit that candidate's account with an additional line of credit equal to the total independent expenditures made against that candidate or for that candidate's opponents, except that:

(1) Such matching credits shall be capped at three times the public financing amount per candidate, which shall be in addition to the base amount of public funding otherwise provided; and

(2) In the event that the aggregate funds raised by all other candidates for the office in question do not equal the public financing amount for that office, the funds credited to the candidate receiving a matching amount pursuant to this section shall be reduced by an amount equal to such public funding amount minus the aggregate of funds raised by those other candidates.

Section 13. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 130, RSMo, to the contrary, contributions and expenditures made by political parties shall be reported to the commission on a quarterly basis, provided that, after the first day of January of an election year, such contributions and expenditures shall be reported on the same basis as a candidate. Reports by parties and all other campaign finance reports required by chapter 130, RSMo, shall be submitted on computer disk as directed by the commission.

2. No person, committee, organization or other entity shall contribute on an aggregate basis, including dues, fees or other charges, more than five thousand dollars per year to any state or local political party or any of its subdivisions.

3. No participating candidate shall accept more than the equivalent of five percent of the public financing amount for that office from all political parties.

4. For purposes of this section and section 12 of this act, in-kind contributions by a ward, township, city, county or state political party committee made on behalf of a group of the party's candidates shall not be considered an improper party contribution or count against the five percent limit established in subsection 3 of this section, if such group includes at least thirty percent of the candidates whose names will appear on the primary election ballot, or at least fifty percent of the candidates whose names will appear on the general election ballot in the political subdivision represented by the party committee making such in-kind contribution.

5. Party contributions reports shall comply with candidate requirements in subsections 2 and 3 of section 6 of this act.

Section 14. 1. There is hereby created in the state treasury a special trust fund to be known as the "Democracy Trust Fund", which shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly.

2. The democracy trust fund shall be used to provide the public financing benefits provided for in sections 1 to 21 of this act, and for the costs of administering the provisions of sections 1 to 21 of this act. No expenditure shall be made from the democracy trust fund for any purpose other than that authorized by sections 1 to 21 of this act.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, all unexpended balances remaining in the democracy trust fund at the end of the biennium shall remain in such fund and shall not be transferred and placed to the credit of general revenue.

4. During each election cycle, the commission shall allocate the funds contained in the democracy trust fund among two subfunds to be established for the following purposes:

(1) Subfund one shall fund the public funding amounts provided for in section 10 of this act; and

(2) Subfund two shall fund the additional matching credits provided for in sections 11 and 12 of this act.

5. The commission shall report to the speaker of the house of representatives, no later than the first day of April of each election year, on its estimate for the needs of the democracy trust fund in the coming election. Such report shall include an estimate of total funds needed for the democracy trust fund in order to fully fund participating candidates for the coming elections, the current balance of funds available to the fund and a request for appropriation to the fund in an amount which the commission estimates will render its funding adequate for the coming elections.

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in the event that, at any time, the funds contained within the democracy trust fund are insufficient to fund the full amounts of public funding provided for in sections 1 to 21 of this act, the commission shall proportionately reduce the levels of funding provided to participating candidates.

Section 15. 1. The democracy trust fund shall be administered by the state treasurer. The state treasurer may place public funds in one or more accounts with a central banking facility and may contract for the disbursement of funds to eligible candidates with a private credit card company.

2. Upon a determination of a candidate's eligibility for public financing pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act, the state treasurer shall issue to the eligible candidate a credit card, known as the fair election credit card, entitling the candidate and designated members of the candidate's staff to draw money from a commission account to pay all campaign costs and expenses.

3. Neither a participating candidate nor any other person on behalf of a participating candidate shall pay campaign costs by cash, check, money order, loan, or by any other financial means except through the use of the fair election credit card, except that cash amounts of one hundred dollars or less may be drawn on the fair election credit card and used to pay expenses of no more than twenty-five dollars each. Records of all such expenditures shall be maintained and reported to the commission.

Section 16. 1. Except where sections 1 to 21 of this act specifically provide otherwise, the duties of and authority for administering and enforcing sections 1 to 21 of this act shall be vested in the commission.

2. In administering and enforcing sections 1 to 21 of this act, the commission shall have the duties and powers accorded to it pursuant to section 105.955, RSMo.

3. In furtherance of the commission's administration and enforcement of sections 1 to 21 of this act, the administrative secretary of the commission shall have and exercise the duties and powers prescribed by section 130.056, RSMo.

Section 17. 1. If a participating candidate spends more than the public funds allocated to the candidate for the election in question, the candidate shall be subject to a civil fine of up to ten times the amount by which the expenditures exceeded the applicable limit.

2. Any candidate who accepts contributions in excess of the limits imposed by sections 1 to 21 of this act, or the limits imposed by any other applicable law, shall be subject to a civil fine of up to ten times the amount by which the contribution exceeded the applicable limit.

3. If the commission finds that there is reason to believe that excess expenditures have been made or excess contributions accepted in violation of the provisions of subsection 1 or 2 of this section, the commission shall attempt, for a period of not more than fourteen days after finding such violation, to correct the matter by informal methods of conference and conciliation and to enter a conciliation agreement with the person involved. A conciliation agreement made pursuant to this section shall be a matter of public record. Unless violated, a conciliation agreement shall be a bar to any civil proceeding pursuant to subsection 4 of this section.

4. If, within the time prescribed in subsection 3 of this section, the commission is unable to correct by informal methods any matter which constitutes probable cause to believe that excess expenditures have been made or excess contributions accepted in violation of subsection 1 or 2 of this section, the commission shall make a public finding of probable cause in the matter. After making a public finding, the commission shall bring an action in the circuit court of Cole County or, in the case of a legislative candidate, the circuit court of the county in which the candidate resides, to impose a civil fine as prescribed by the commission pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 of this section.

5. In the event that a registered voter believes that a candidate has violated the provisions of sections 1 to 21 of this act and such registered voter is entitled to vote for or against such candidate in the election at issue, such registered voter may file a complaint with the commission requesting it to take remedial action. If, within thirty days after the date of the filing of such a complaint, the commission has refused or failed to take remedial action, such registered voter may pursue a civil action in the appropriate circuit court to impose the civil fines prescribed in subsection 1 or 2 of this section.

6. If the commission believes that a violation of sections 1 to 21 of this act has occurred, and deems such a recommendation appropriate, the commission may make a nonbinding recommendation to the general assembly as to disciplinary action to be taken in light of the violation, including forfeiture of office.

7. If a complaint brought pursuant to subsection 5 of this section is resolved against the complainant, the costs incurred by the other party or parties, including reasonable attorney's fees, may be assessed against the complainant.

Section 18. 1. If a candidate, or other person acting on behalf of a candidate, knowingly accepts more benefits than the candidate is entitled to receive, spends more than the amount of public campaign funds received or otherwise misuses the benefits of public financing, such person is guilty of a class D felony and may be fined not more than twenty thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

2. If a candidate receiving public financing, or other person acting on behalf of such a candidate, knowingly pays for goods or services received for campaign expenditures by cash, check, money order or any means other than the fair election credit card, except as permitted pursuant to subsection 3 of section 15 of this act, such person is guilty of a class D felony and may be fined not more than twenty thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

3. If, in connection with the receipt or expenditure of public financing for an election campaign, any person knowingly provides false information to the commission or knowingly conceals or withholds information from the commission, such person is guilty of a class D felony and may be fined up to twenty thousand dollars, or imprisoned for five years, or both.

4. All prosecutions pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act which relate to elections for state senator or state representative shall be conducted by the prosecuting attorney for the county where the violation is alleged to have occurred, except that if such prosecuting attorney refuses to act upon a sworn complaint, or fails to act upon such a complaint within sixty days of the date on which such a complaint is received, the attorney general may then conduct the prosecution pursuant to this section. All prosecutions pursuant to sections 1 to 21 of this act which relate to elections for other offices shall be conducted by the attorney general, except that, if a violation concerns the attorney general or a candidate for such office, the governor may appoint a special prosecutor to conduct the prosecution on behalf of the state. The special prosecutor shall be independent of the attorney general and need not be a state employee at the time of appointment.

Section 19. 1. Any state officeholder who is a candidate for an office covered by the provisions of sections 1 to 21 of this act and who uses state funds to do a mass mailing after the first day of June in an election year shall declare his or her intent to do so by the first day of May of such year. Any such mailing shall be completed by the first day of July of such year.

2. Any participating candidate for the same office who is of the same political party as the candidate sending out such a mailing shall be entitled to receive additional credit equal to the cost of state expenditures for such mailing. A participating candidate shall make application for such a credit to the commission by the fifteenth day of May of that year.

3. Additional credit awarded to a participating candidate pursuant to this section shall be used to fund a mailing which:

(a) Does not explicitly call upon the recipient of the mailing to vote for the participating candidate; and

(b) Does not mention the participating candidate's opponent or opponents by name.

4. All mailings funded by additional credits awarded pursuant to this section shall be reviewed and approved by the commission for compliance with the requirements of this section in advance of the mailing, and shall be completed by the first day of August of such year.

Section 20. A candidate who is a nonparticipating candidate, either by choice or failure to qualify, is allowed to raise unlimited amounts of money from private sources, except as otherwise provided by law.

Section 21. 1. Commission actions may be reviewed by any district of the court of appeals of this state. Petitions for review shall be filed within thirty days after final commission action.

2. Sections 1 to 21 of this act shall apply, following its passage and approval by the voters of this state, to state elections after November 8, 2000, for the offices of governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, state representative and state senator.

3. Sections 1 to 21 of this act shall apply to all special elections and runoff elections following its passage and approval by the voters of this state, with governing time periods and deadlines regarding such special and runoff elections to be prescribed by the commission."

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 14, entitled:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14

WHEREAS, in late November, 1998, Missouri accepted the 206 billion dollar settlement agreement negotiated between 46 states and the tobacco industry;

WHEREAS, the states' attorneys general crafted the settlement agreement to protect states' interests, consistent with the lawsuits filed on behalf of the states;

WHEREAS, the settlement agreement reflects difficult policy decisions and years of effort among the states which bore the risk and expense of litigating their claims against a strong tobacco industry;

WHEREAS, the federal government neither participated in nor assisted with the litigation and negotiation of the states' claims, yet now seeks to seize a substantial portion of the resulting payments due to the states;

WHEREAS, the federal government bases its claim on federal right to recoupment for medicaid expenses, a claim which was not promoted by the federal government in any litigation prior to the settlement of the states' claims;

WHEREAS, by the terms of the settlement agreement, Missouri would receive approximately 6.7 billion dollars by 2025, yet faces an estimated potential loss of 3.9 billion dollars of this amount to the federal government;

WHEREAS, Missouri rightfully should determine the best use of the settlement proceeds achieved through state effort, using state resources and motivated by state concerns;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the Missouri Senate of the Ninetieth General Assembly, the House of Representatives concurring therein, that the President of the United States and the members of Missouri's Congressional delegation recognize the effort and resources expended by Missouri to promote and protect its interests throughout the litigation and negotiation of claims against the tobacco industry;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the General Assembly of the State of Missouri requests that the President of the United States and the members of Missouri's Congressional delegation protect the proceeds negotiated by Missouri in settlement of its claims by refusing to divert, seize or recoup any portion of the settlement proceeds for federal purposes; and

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY, Thursday, March 11, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Tim Green.

Dear God, please help this legislative body in the State of Missouri learn that patience is a blending of moral courage and perseverance.

Dear Lord, help us always to aim for the truth, for truth is fairness for everyone.

Dear Heavenly Father, always help us to remember that an error gracefully acknowledged is a victory won.

May God sleep on your pillow, may the road rise to meet you, may the wind be always at your back, may the sun shine warm upon your face, the rain falls soft upon your fields. Until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His Hand.

And may we all have a safe and enjoyable Spring break with our families.

Let us pray for Ryan McKenna's mother, Kathy, and our colleague Ralph Monaco who will be having surgery next week, and Milt Svetanics who suffered a heart attack last night and is in the hospital.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Stacy Ederle, Carrie Causino, Brian Ziegler, Mark Finegar and Lauren Lang.

The Journal of the thirty-seventh day was approved as corrected.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

THIRTY-NINTH DAY, Monday, March 22, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Harry Kennedy.

We live in a very exciting but very busy time. It seems that there are not enough hours in the day. We here at the Capitol are not immune to many distractions as we hurry from committee hearing to committee hearing, and at home from one meeting to the next. Let us bow our heads and ask God's blessing on everything we do today. In this vein let us try to emulate the verses of this Old Irish Prayer....

Oh Lord, encourage us to: Take time to work, it is the price of success. Take time to think, it is the source of power. Take time to play, it is the secret of perpetual youth. Take time to read, it is the foundation of wisdom. Take time to be friendly, it is the road to happiness. Take time to dream, it is hitching your wagon to a star. Take time to love and be loved, it is the privilege of the gods. Take time to look around, the day is too short to be selfish. Take time to laugh, it is the music of the soul. For this we pray.....Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 16, entitled:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 16

WHEREAS, the Food Quality Protection Act of 1996 was signed into law on August 3, 1996, by President Clinton; and

WHEREAS, the Food Quality Protection Act establishes new safety standards that pesticides must meet to be newly registered or remain on the market; and

WHEREAS, the Food Quality Protection Act requires the Environmental Protection Agency to ensure that all pesticide tolerances meet these new Food Quality Protection Act standards by reassessing one-third of the 9,700 existing pesticide tolerances by August, 1999, and all existing tolerances in ten years; and

WHEREAS, the Food Quality Protection Act changes the types of information the Environmental Protection Agency is required to evaluate in the risk assessment process for establishing tolerances for pesticide residues in food and feed; and

WHEREAS, the Food Quality Protection Act was to assure that pesticide tolerances and policies are formulated in an open and transparent manner; and

WHEREAS, the Food Quality Protection Act further emphasizes the need for reliable information about the volume and types of pesticides being applied to individual crops and what residues can be anticipated on these crops; and

WHEREAS, risk estimates based on sound science and reliable, real-world data are essential to avoid misguided decisions, and the best way for the Environmental Protection Agency to obtain these data is to require data submission by the registrant through the data call-in process; and

WHEREAS, the implementation of the Food Quality Protection Act by the Environmental Protection Agency could have a profound negative impact on domestic agricultural production, and on consumer food prices and availability if products are removed from the market solely because of insufficient data; and

WHEREAS, the removal of these products will result in fewer pest control options for the United States and Missouri and could significantly disrupt successful integrated pest management programs which would be devastating to the economy of our state and jeopardize the very livelihood of many of our agricultural producers; and

WHEREAS, the removal of products because of a lack of information will result in fewer pest control options for urban and suburban uses, with potential losses of personal property, damage to valuable recreational areas and managed green space and increased human health concerns;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate of the Ninetieth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby ask that Congress direct the Environmental Protection Agency to immediately initiate appropriate public rulemaking to ensure that the policies, standards and procedures it intends to apply in reassessing existing pesticide tolerances are subject to public notice and comment prior to final tolerance determinations being made by the agency; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Environmental Protection Agency use sound science and real-world data from the data call-in process in establishing realistic models for evaluating risks; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Congress direct the Environmental Protection Agency to implement the Food Quality Protection Act in a manner that will not disrupt agricultural production nor negatively impact the availability, diversity, and affordability of food, threaten public health or diminish the quality of valuable recreational areas and managed green spaces; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Congress immediately conduct oversight hearings to ensure that actions by the Environmental Protection Agency are consistent with the Food Quality Protection Act provisions and Congressional intent; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Missouri Congressional delegation and to the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

FORTIETH DAY, Tuesday, March 23, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard, First Presbyterian Church.

O God, Gracious and Merciful, we pray for Your wisdom and Your guidance for the members of this House. Lift from their hearts all that discourages and all that invites cynicism and distrust of one another. And give to these who govern, faith in our fundamentals of democracy and justice and goodness.

May they serve You and the people of Missouri this day with a sense of joy and clear purpose for the common good... and to You be glory and honor, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10

WHEREAS, the current financial crises in Asia, Russia and other regions have involved massive depreciation in the currencies of several key steel-producing and steel-consuming countries and a collapse in the domestic demand for steel in those countries; and

WHEREAS, these crises have generated and will continue to generate surges in United States imports of steel, both from the countries whose currencies have depreciated in the crisis and from steel producing countries that are no longer able to export steel to the countries in economic crisis; and

WHEREAS, foreign government trade restrictions and private restraints of trade distort international trade and investment patterns and result in burdens on United States commerce, including absorption of a disproportionate share of diverted steel trade, which ultimately has a detrimental effect on this state's economy; and

WHEREAS, there is a well recognized need for improvements in the enforcement of United States trade laws to provide an effective response to these situations;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Ninetieth General Assembly, the House of Representatives concurring therein, requests the President of the United States to commence immediate study to determine the entry into the customs territory of the United States of all steel products that are the product of or are manufactured in Australia, China,

South Africa, Ukraine, Indonesia, India, Japan, Russia, South Korea or Brazil, to determine whether the governments of those countries are abiding by the spirit and letter of international trade agreements with respect to imports of steel products into the United States, and take all actions necessary to enforce applicable trade agreements and laws of the United States pertaining to steel imports; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the General Assembly of the State of Missouri requests the President of the United States to immediately impose a one-year ban on imports of all steel products that are the product of or are manufactured in Australia, China, South Africa, Ukraine, Indonesia, India, Japan, Russia, South Korea or Brazil, if the President finds that the governments of those countries are not abiding by the spirit and letter of international trade agreements with respect to imports of steel products into the United States; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the General Assembly of the State of Missouri requests the President of the United States to establish a task force within the executive branch to closely monitor imports of steel products to the United States from other countries to determine whether international trade agreements are being violated; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to provide properly inscribed copies of this resolution to Bill Clinton, President of the United States.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

FORTY-SECOND DAY, Thursday, March 25, 1999

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Ralph Robinett, Sergeant at Arms.

Dear Heavenly Father,

How comforting it is to know we can cast all our anxieties on You because You care for us. Keep us self-controlled and alert because Your enemy, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Help us resist him and keep us standing firm in the faith.

And the God of all Grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ...will Himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast. To Him be the glory and power for ever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

House Journal

First Regular Session, 90th General Assembly

FORTY-THIRD DAY, Monday, March 29, 1999

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Betty Thompson.

Our Father, As we gather here this afternoon, to prepare for another day's journey, to deal with the business of this great state, in hopes that this 90th General Assembly will be one of commitment, one of dedication, decency and trust! Dear God, Bless each and everyone of us, our family and the people we serve.

A very special blessing upon the family of Fletcher Daniels, who was a great leader and great individual. We ask you God, at this dark hour to shine on us, maybe not today and maybe not tomorrow, but one glad morning when this life is over we will fly away and be with God and Fletcher. This we ask in our Father's name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.
